Théâtre Royal De Toone

"A Puppet Theater"

One of Brussels' most popular attractions, The Théâtre Royal De Toone has been entertaining audiences with marionette puppets since 1830. Not just for kids, the Toone puts on shows by Shakespeare, Faust, and other famous playwrights, all adapted to include some of the theater's trademark humor. Located close to the Grand Palace, the Toone offers shows in Dutch, Spanish, English, German, and Italian upon request. If you're planning a visit, reservations are recommended, as the Toone's shows tend to be very busy.

La Monnaie

"World-Class Opera"

Since Gerard Mortier became its director in 1981 (he now heads the Salzburger Festspiele), the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie has returned to the spotlight. Under the direction of his successor, renowned organist Bernard Foccroule, the theater is now considered one of the most exciting opera houses in the world. Opera here is indeed a spectacle! It also boasts a lovely bookstore where you can purchase CDs, souvenirs, as well as books.

Royal Flemish Theatre

"Diverse Performances"

The Royal Flemish Theatre aims to showcase the diversity of Brussels through the performances that take place there. Shows here may be in different languages and the themes stem from a variety of cultures. First built in the 18th Century as a warehouse, the building housing the theater offers visitors striking architecture to admire.
