Golf de Pierpont

"Charming Golf Club"

This golf course adjacent to the Pierpont Hotel is actually made up of two courses, the "Grand Pierpont" championship-level course, and the compact "Petit Pierpont." The grounds are beautiful, surrounded by country fields and a 17th-century courtyard and farmhouse. Besides the clubhouse and hotel, there is a golf academy with training facilities. Pierpont underwent a complete renovation in 2011.

Royal Waterloo Golf Club

"Fore!"

The Royal Waterloo Golf Club is a beautiful golf club that has hosted several international tournaments and has multiple courses. You can pick between the 18-Hole Le Lion Course, the 18-Hole La Marache Course, and the 9-Hole Le Bois Hérou Course, though all of the courses are both picturesque and challenging. There is also an onsite restaurant and golf shop.

Golf Club D'Hulencourt

"World-Class Belgian Golf Course"

Golf Club d'Hulencourt is one of Belgium's finest golfing establishments, located just a short drive from Brussels. Housed on the grounds of a 17th Century manor, the course's 18 holes were designed by venerated French architect Jean-Manuel Rossi. After playing through 18 world-class holes, golfers can enjoy the warm atmosphere of the club house with a Bokma, a genever-based drink that's traditional after a round on the course.

Golf Château de la Tournette

"Exclusive Golf Club"

Golf Château de la Tournette is an exclusive golf club in the center of Brussels in the heart of the Ittre and Nivelles valleys. The course is beautiful, and offers royal treatment to members and their guests. Two championship level courses – the American Course and the English Course – are set next to a smaller course and golf academy. The clubhouse is set in a 16th-century restored castle and farm, where a full calendar of competitions and social events are held.
