Camping Masnou

"Beachside Camping"

Standing a hop, skip and jump away from the beach, Camping Masnou offers a delightful getaway close to Barcelona. Established in 1956, it's one of the oldest campsites the country and lives up to its reputation as one of the best too. The site occupies a lush landscape near the coast and is equipped with a host of amenities including a restaurant, a bar and even a swimming pool. Besides the camping slots, the site also has a selection of rooms for those who prefer to sleep indoors. Though it's technically not located within Barcelona, it's proximity to the city makes it a favorite with the urban bunch. Check website for booking and more information.

Campsite Tres Estrellas

"Camp It Out!"

Located in the neighborhood of Castelldefels, Campsite Tres Estrellas is of the most fun places for a outing. They offer a great variety of mobile rooms as well as the camping rooms that are well maintained and comfortable. You may also want to opt for the cabins that can accommodate two persons, with two beds, that costs lesser than a mobile home. The site features a swimming pool, and also accommodates various theme parties, dances, contests, concerts and special functions. A great place for kids, this place ensures you have a memorable family outing. For reservations and detailed information, visit the website or call ahead.
