

"Best European in Barcelona"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 6 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Public Domain ©

Suculent

"A Play of Food & Art"

One of the most popular restaurant's of the city, Suculent comes most recommended for the discerning patron. It's archaic door opens up to reveal an intimate setting that exudes an old-world charm. Accentuated with wooden furnishings and illuminated with quaint lamp shades, the restaurant is designed to slow down the worries of city life. This rhythm is then carried into their cuisine as well which focuses on delighting your palate to slow-cooked dishes. With an innovative menu, Suculent keeps their food interesting and versatile. The sheer plating as well as the play of textures and flavors sets their food apart from the contemporaries making it a must-visit for those who appreciate nuances of Mediterranean cuisine.

☎ +34 93 443 6579

🌐 suculent.com/

✉ suculent@suculent.com

📍 Rambla del Raval 43, Barcelona

📷 by Jennifer ©

Gresca

"Romantic & Imaginative"

This small and stylish restaurant in L'Eixample is perfect for a date night out in the city. The food is particularly attractive to foodies with an advanced palette due to the chef's imaginative dishes that stretch the traditional roles of Spanish cuisine. The tasting menu is highly recommended as it gives diners a good perspective on the overall concept of this trendy restaurant. The octopus carpaccio and house-marinated fresh anchovies are a must-try as are many of the Spanish wines offered on the selective wine menu. The atmosphere is romantic, dim and quiet.

☎ +34 34 934 51 61 93

📍 Carrer de Provença 230, Barcelona

📷 by e_calamar ©

Manairó

"Innovative Haute Cuisine"

Get a load of Spanish innovation at Manairó. Savor everything from healthy salads to juicy meats, vegetarian dishes to yummy desserts. Daily specials and loads of experimental preparations are featured on the menu regularly. Each item on the menu has the makings of a signature dish. The competent culinary crew presents to you dishes which represent a balanced approach of local cuisine and international refinement and finesse. The question is: which one do you want to endorse?

☎ +34 93 231 0057

🌐 www.manairo.com/

✉ info@manairo.com

📍 Carrer de la Diputació 424, Barcelona

Velódromo

"Legendary Barcelona Cafe"

Located in the L'Eixample district, this famous restaurant is typical of a French brasserie, and is known to serve some really unique breakfast dishes. Loved by the majority of locals and tourists, Velódromo has a relaxed ambiance, which is perfect for a quiet afternoon lunch with family. Among all their preparations, the ones that customers love the most include the Iberian ham, croissants, a variety of tapas and their Capipota a la Catalana.

+34 934 30 6022

moritz.com/en/section/el-velodromo-0

Calle Muntaner 213, Barcelona

by Javier Lastras

Rioba

"Impressive Local Eatery"

A restaurant explored by locals as well as tourists, Rioba has been shining on the city's culinary scene for quite sometime. The place has an elegant interior; it's quite intimate and quiet thus perfect for a romantic dinner date. At Rioba, grace is effortlessly carried forward into the place's menu as well which incorporates fresh, local ingredients in the making of all their dishes. Artistically plated, their food is sure to delight your vision as well as your palate. A place where art and food amalgamate, Rioba is a must for gourmands.

+34 93 138 1357

Carrer de Magalhães 35, Barcelona

by Public Domain

Restaurante Can Ros

"Paella & More"

A local institution, Restaurante Can Ros has been around for more than a century and is among the oldest eateries in the neighborhood. A rustic setting complements its old-worldly charm. This is one of the best places in town for authentic Catalan cuisine. Seafood and paella rule the roost here. Only freshly caught fish and seafood are used in their menu. Everything is prepared fresh to retain its authenticity. The recipes are a closely guarded secret and has been consistent throughout its long existence.

+34 93 221 4579

www.canros.cat

Carrer Almirall Aixada 7, Barcelona

JOIN US AT:
cityseeker.com