Belushi's

"Bar Extraordinaire"

Looking for a party pad or simply a late night hang out, then head to Belushi's, one of the coolest bar in town. Tucked between Plaça de Catalunya and La Rambla, this bar is where all the hippest in town come to unwind and catch live sports action. The atmosphere is laid-back and gets jazzed up with all the music and banter. The world-famous burgers make perfect accompaniments to the long drinks and shots, and the breakfast menu features some of best remedies for even the nastiest hangover. So party all night without worrying about sobering up.

Dunnes

"For Sports and Beer"

Dunnes tries to recreate the vibe of a traditional Irish drinking joint and doesn't fail. Tucked in the Gothic Square, merely a stone's throw away from Jaume I train station, this pub is the perfect spot if you're looking for a place to unwind or catch some live sports action. The threadbare brick walls, wooden bars and high vaulted ceiling make the place feel intimate yet spacious at the same time. Homemade fare of Irish Stew, Bangers & Mash, Chicken Burger and Fajitas perfectly complements the Guinness, Magners and other beers. And if you're into football then come down on a game night and experience the game in a fun and convivial atmosphere with the swag crowd.

Black Horse

"Play Your Way Here"

Black Horse is the quintessential sports pub that offers everything related to sports and recreation to its diners. The entertainment ranges from live gigs to pub-quizzes and play-station games, darts and live matches. Get comfortable with a pitcher of beer or a quarter of whiskey and join in the revelry over the latest win or play a game of backgammon, cards or chess. Truly an English pub, everyone is friendly and knows everyone else here. The crowd is young and mostly is a mix of Spanish and English. Be sure to take in the beauty of this 16th-century building while here.

Flaherty's

"Beerheads Unite"

Happening crowd, great music, good old Guinness and craic - Flaherty's has all the trappings of a typical Irish pub and that's what makes it one of the top nightlife destinations in Barcelona. The space is cozy and intimate yet spacious enough to accommodate stag and hen parties as well as larger groups. Pair the pints with tantalizing home-made dishes like the Char-Grilled Chicken, Sunday Roast and don't forget to try their signature Irish breakfast which is served even well after breakfast hours.
