Can Cuyàs Golf

"Golfing Paradise"

Located 15 minutes away from Barcelona's city center, this splendid par 3 golf course is a public course popular for a pitch and putt game, equipped with 9 holes and wide greens. Allocated training areas at the course allow you to practice your game before you head off to play. Day prices are reasonable, and there is also an on-site restaurant at the club where you may retire after a satisfying game.

Golf Sant Joan

"Challenging Terrain"

Golf Sant Joan is located in Rubi about 20-minutes outside of Barcelona. The 18-hole course was designed by acclaimed Spanish golfer Severiano Ballesteros in 1994 and is considered to be the first public golf club in Catalonia. The layout is challenging with its tree linings and forest views, but amateurs and pros can still at least try to improve their swing. It is recommended that golfers rent a cart and for those who love the game but want to learn more, the professionals here can do it. Other features include a pro shop, restaurant and bar.

Club de Golf Vallromanes

"Top Golf Destinations"

Designed by F.W.Hawtree, the Club de Golf Vallromanes is one of the top-notch golf courses in the Catalonia region. This 18-hole par 72 course lies amidst a spectacular location D.O.Alella, an area known for its wineries. Despite being deemed as one of the best golf courses in the region, the Club de Golf Vallromanes is open to visitors in lieu of a green fee. The club also has an on-site restaurant that is well-known for its Mediterranean fare.

Real Club de Golf El Prat

"An Impressive Golf Course"

Located 15 kilometers (nine miles) south of Barcelona, the enjoyable El Prat course has 45 holes. Designed by golfer Greg Norman, the club is situated in the beautiful countryside on the Costa Brava and features modern facilities including a gourmet restaurant, driving range, pro shop, swimming pool, sauna, and Turkish bath. Besides the two 18-hole, par 72 courses, the club also has a public golf school with its own 9-hole course to help improve a skilled player's game and maybe even discover young, new talent.

Club de Golf Barcelona

"Tee-Off Near Montserrat Mountain"

Formerly known as the Masia Bach Golf Course, the Club de Golf Barcelona or Barcelona Golf Club was designed by Jose Maria Olazabal. Experienced golfers can test their skills on the tough 18-hole, par 72 course, while beginners may feel more comfortable on the shorter 9-hole course. Known as one of the best places to golf in Catalonia, visitors can check out gorgeous views of Montserrat Mountain while playing a round. Facilities at the club include a pro shop, driving range, bar and restaurant, coffee and snack bar, buggy hire and a golf school.
