Haus der Jugend

"Modern Youth Hostel"

This youth hostel is located on the banks of the River Main and offers breathtaking views of the Frankfurt skyline. There are many places of interest close at hand: the museums situated along the riverside, the Römer, Paulskirche and the cathedral. The old district of Sachsenhausen, with its traditional Apfelwein pubs, is just around the corner. The interior of the youth hostel is modern and functional. During the summer, guests from all over the world gather on the romantic patio to check out the view. There is also a beautiful conservatory where people can relax. For booking details of conference and meeting rooms, kindly visit the website.

Frankfurt Hostel

"Making Frankfurt Affordable"

The cost of a vacation in Frankfurt am Main is not something all of us can afford; when you don't have to shell out an exorbitant amount on accommodation, however, it becomes a whole different story altogether. This chance for an affordable vacation is just what Frankfurt Hostel offers you. Centrally situated in the train station quarter, the hostel becomes a great starting point from which to explore attractions like Goethe House. You can choose from among single, double, triple and quad rooms, or you could opt to stay in a dorm. The reception has lockers for rent, available for a daily fee of EUR2.
