Cooky's

"Cooky-ing Till the Early Hours"

Cooky's has been a nightlife institution for over decades; the music ranges from dance and hip-hop to soul, and the clientele is made up of an equally colorful mix of characters. From time to time famous names from the world of music and show business put in an appearance. Fridays feature dance classics with DJ Ernesto and Saturdays are devoted to house music and soul. Weekdays are also great fun, with the cocktail bar and bistro providing decent food and drinks. Check the website for a list of performers.

Final Destination

"Strictly Music"

This club in the central city is Frankfurt's premier venue for hard rock, metal and thrash. Most nights see local performers tearing it up, and sometimes international acts from all over the world come to rain down some wicked sounds. Their cocktail bar and drinks menu will leave anyone spoiled for choice. Weekends are especially wild, where the party starts at 10p and closes at indefinite timings, which means extra hours of dancing! It is closed on Sundays.

Latin Palace Chango

"Latino Nights!"

Visit Latin Palace Chango and give your weekend night a Latin twist. Established in 2002, this nightclub and bar adds the spark to Frankfurt's nightlife scene. The music churned out by DJs, mainly salsa, bachata and merengue, draws their influences from various Latin regions and blends them with modern styles like techno, electric, reggae and other styles. Certain nights, live performers fill this place with their vibrant beats. You can choose the lounge to enjoy your own private celebration or party hard at their outdoor tent.
