Butcher

"Meaty Goodness"

If juicy burgers and succulent steaks are what please your heart, then Butcher is just the place for you. The menu changes regularly, offering up a delectable selection of prime cuts and scrumptious burgers that are sure to please even the most discerning and ardent meat lovers. Grilled to perfection and packed with flavor, every dish served is heaped with oodles of meaty goodness. A fine selection of bourbon, whiskey and cocktails compliments the scrumptious food menu. The restaurant itself is simple and relaxed; a great place to enjoy a meal with friends.

Best Bagels

"American-style Café Specializing in Bagels"

Homesick U.S. travelers take note! An american-themed café aimed at the student population, Best Bagels has your hot dogs, bagels and large coffees just like at home! In the heart of the Terreaux neighborhood, this small but busy café caters to the youth with a liking for american pop culture. Upon arriving in front of Best Bagels, you can hardly miss the showcase of U.S. sweets and snack boxes in its window, making it a small scale museum of american junk food! The food inside is not, though, and you can order bagels with a wide choice of spreads, so-called "New York hot-dogs" as well as muffins and donuts.

The Hot Dog Father

"Meat Buns From America"

Home to a range of meat-laden hot dogs, The Hot Dog Father enjoys a quiet location on Cours Lafayette. Available at cheap prices and ideal for a quick snack, this cozy restaurant also serves a range of other American treats such as cookies, muffins, donuts and cheesecakes. The hot dogs, however, steal the limelight with their versatile options and terrific seasonings. Choose from classics such as The Original, BBQ Dog and Chicago Dog, or go big with the Spicy Dog option or the more elaborate and cheekily named Pimp My Dog.

Les Frangins

"Burger House"

Les Frangins is wildly popular with both locals and tourists who queue up for the excellent fast food that this place serves. Delicious, juicy burgers come with soft, fresh buns and splendid meat fillings, while French Fries are crispy and fresh. Regulars recommend the beer-soaked shredded pork burger that comes topped off with a crunchy onion ring. All you have to do is slather it with a huge dollop of readily available mayonnaise, and you're all set. Do finish off with a bite of their delicious desserts that come at a small fee.

Burger & Wine

"Fast Food With a Splash of Wine"

This restaurant successfully marries off two starkly different culinary icons of America and France, and comes out shining. This probably explains why there is always a long wait at the Burger & Wine restaurant located in the Perrache neighborhood. An extensive burger menu features everything from traditional steak burgers to more elaborate and juicier ones. Burgers and bagels are available in two size options, so one can choose as per their appetite. Fine wines that won't burn a hole in your pocket are available as well. A kids menu features a small burger meal accompanied with lemonade.
