

"Best Tapas in Lyon"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 3 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Maddi Bazzocco on Unsplash

La Paloma del sol

"Spanish Tapas & Wines"

This warm and friendly restaurant near Saint-Georges is known for its Spanish tapas specialties, which it serves with excellent flair. The menu changes with the turn of every season, meaning more variety and seasonal produce in the dishes. La Paloma del sol includes a list of exquisite organic wines of Spanish origin that perfectly complements their tapas menu. A handful of wines from the South of France are also included. Besides the creative tapas fare, the restaurant also serves some splendid charcuterie boards with cheese and carefully selected meats.

📞 +33 4 7241 0058

✉️ contact@lapalomadelsol.fr

📍 25 Rue Tramassac, Lyon

📷 by Alexander Mils on Unsplash

Le Phosphore

"Tapas Bar With City Views"

Located in a beautiful setting with dimly lit interiors, a sleek black-and-gold decor and intimate seating, Le Phosphore takes your breath away from the word go. The tapas bar serves a fine range of succulent meats, and set menus that offer small plates, a dessert and a wine are also available. The wine list is impressive, and the desserts must be tasted to be believed. A stunning terrace that overlooks mesmerizing views of the city. completes the setting.

📍 1 Allée Site de l'Antiquaille, Montée du chemin neuf, Lyon

📷 by Hermes Rivera on Unsplash

Comptoir 113

"Breezy Wine & Tapas Bar"

This sunny eatery in La Guillotiere is where the neighborhood heads to for aperitifs, Corsican charcuterie, tantalizing tapas and everything in between. A breezy sun-drenched terrace occupies the front of Comptoir 113, and is a fine place to sit back and relax with some early evening drinks and snacks. Comptoir 113 features an endless wine list, including wines from local regions, South Provence, Alsace and a few others. The staff is friendly and the service is impeccable.

📞 +33 4 7280 9340

📍 113 Grande Rue de la Guillotiere, Lyon

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com