La Taverne du Perroquet Bourré

"Pirates of the Terreaux!"

Situated near the Terreaux, on the road most renowned for its sheer number of pubs and bars, this tavern is a paradise for those who love a good drink. The decor and the ambiance, along with the wooden furnishings, lend La Taverne du Perroquet Bourré the charm of a pirate's ship. The speciality of this unusual bar is their rum, which you can enjoy in all its delectable varieties: spiced with hibiscus, apricots, vanilla, cinnamon, pepper or even ginger! Their unique collection of fruity shooters is also worth a shot. An ideal place to meet new people, you can sip on their delicious rum as you listen to some French music that steadily grows into rock and punk as the day progresses. They also organize theme nights, quiz nights and themed parties. Check website for more details.

Les Berthom

"Premium Concoctions"

Les Berthom has served as a city landmark since the year 1994. A rustic space with a lot of wooden accents and an exhaustive list of standard and premium beers, it is frequented by scores of locals and tourists alike. With more than 50 ales, both on-tap and by the bottle, Berthom is a prime spot to gulp down those famous Belgian beers and other fine labels. Inventive cocktails and the choicest of whiskeys also populate its exciting libations menu.

Le Fantôme de l'Opéra

"Debonair Cocktail Lounge"

This intimate bar with a Phantom of the Opera theme serves spellbinding cocktails, crafted by creative mixologists and served by friendly bartenders. Each cocktail is like a piece of art, and their menus are renewed every three months to keep things interesting. The ambiance is relaxing and quiet, with romantic nooks consumed by amber lighting and the melodious sashaying of the silk curtains. Black leather armchairs occupy the main space, with a sofa or two in the corner. An outdoor terrace is also available. Le Fantôme de l'Opéra is ideal for pre-dinner cocktails or late night aperitifs, depending on your mood.
