Camparino In Galleria

"Of Iconic Drinks"

This is one of the places which made Milan famous as a city for drinking. Campari - a well-known drink used for cocktails or drunk on its own - was invented here in 1867. The splendid Galleria is opposite the Duomo, and the raised panoramic hall is decorated in period style. Camparino In Galleria is a fantastic place that illustrates culture and history. It claims to be an institution, and not a cafe. Whatever you ask for will be given to you, whether you are a VIP, a tourist or a local.

Mag Cafe

"Cocktail Sensation"

This canal-side bar is one of the best in town when it comes to delicious concoctions. Decked up with various antique elements, soft lights and cabinets, Mag Cafe has an old worldly charm to it that soothes your heart. The bar's back wall done up with many liquor glass bottles is a highlight of this watering hole. Their mixologists are known to concoct fabulous cocktails and showcase their art with flair. Surely a treat to watch as well as sip a drink. Nibble on tasty bites and enjoy live jazz tunes played nightly.
