Attombri

"Accessorize Yourself"

Attombri is highly respected in San Marco area for being one of the best businesses around. The successful shop is run by two brothers who lent their family name to the establishment. Their claim to fame is that their precious metal creations have been on Dolce & Gabbana's ramps. Browsing tourists as well as locals will vouch for the quality and workmanship put into the jewelry available here. The beads and crystals used in the creations are placed with ancient techniques strictly by hand. Old traditions are kept alive through the pretty intricate designs of the accessories at this store.

Sigfrido Cipolato

"Gothic Chic Jewelry"

The jewelry of Siegfried Cipolato has an element of horror as it prominently features Moors' heads and skeletons. Using precious metals, rare gemstones and unusual materials such as ebony, diamonds, white and yellow gold and pink enamel, the owner of this store hand-crafts the masterpieces. The ornaments exhibit eclectic influences and are created using centuries-old techniques with precision. Its collection includes earrings, pins, brooches and rings with golden skull heads and pictures of sorrowful women. If you have courage to wear the pieces, then flaunt them in style.
