Bottega Veneta

"World-Famous Leather Goods"

Bottega Veneta is world-renowned for their leather goods. However their apparels, accessories, jewelry, perfumes and home decor are equally noteworthy. Their branch on Campo San Moisè is a great place to look out for artisanal products. Add a splash of style to your wardrobe with their elegant handbags, ready-to-wear, wallets, scarves, belts, moccasins, bags and bracelets. Or deck up your home with their contemporary furnishings and furniture.

Al Duca D'Aosta Uomo

"Designer Wear"

Founded in 1902 as a men's fabric shop, Al Duca D'Aosta Uomo has come a long way to become one of the prestigious boutiques in town for both men and women. Run by the fourth generation of the founding family, you will find many top designers under one roof. From apparels to accessories, bags and jewelry, their collection is top-notch and expensive too. But it is worth all the price for those who love their fashion and want to flaunt their designer-wear.

La Casa di Loto

"Like a Venetian Period Drama"

Time comes to a halt at La Casa di Loto and so do most shoppers who pass by its attractive window displays. Inside, the atmosphere of the 1920s pervades throughout with old-styled tables covered with tablecloths and cutlery, vintage lighting, and old dressing tables and cupboards preserving the secrets of a bygone era, replete with vintage clothing and accessories. Whether you are looking for soft brown fur to dress up like a grand lady, lustrous silk trousers and dresses, sequined outfits, layered skirts, tulle frocks, vintage jeans, apparel sewed from Venetian lace or traditional local garbs, you are sure to find it here. Dress up like a glam doll, an early 20th Century princess or a fashionista from the 1950s: pick your style and show up at a party as a classic Venetian icon.
