

"Best Desserts in New York"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 19 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Courtney Cook on Unsplash

The Original Chinatown Ice Cream Factory

"Homemade With Exotic Flavors"

Who would have thought that some of the best homemade ice creams in New York City are located right in the heart of Manhattan's Chinatown? The dozens of flavors include Spicy Ginger embedded with tiny ginger pieces, Mild Red Bean and the ever-popular Green Tea. Lychee Nut and Pistachio are also amazing. The tiny shop has no seating area but the winding streets of Chinatown provide ample good view while you stroll with your treat.

📞 +1 212 608 4170

🌐 www.chinatownicecreamfactory.com

✉ chinatownicecream@gmail.com

📍 65 Bayard Street, New York NY

📷 by flickr4jazz

Bubby's

"Tribeca's Preferred Brunch Destination"

For the most part, this Tribeca restaurant is a grazing spot for the upscale loft-dwellers of the neighborhood. However, come weekends, the eatery is buzzing with diners looking to savor a hearty brunch. Don't be surprised to find a serpentine queue awaiting you at peak hours. No matter the time of the day, Bubby's is the place to head to when you crave comfort food such as deviled eggs, fried chicken and apple pie. The decadent desserts and heady cocktails on offer are major crowd pullers. When the weather permits, the patio makes for a pleasant dining destination too.

📞 +1 212 219 0666

🌐 www.bubbys.com/

📍 120 Hudson Street, New York NY

📷 by Harris Vo on Unsplash

Caffe Palermo

"A Dessert Haven"

If you want to feel like you are in Palermo, this established cafe is definitely worth a visit. Caffe Palermo, nestled on Mulberry Street, is a delightful slice of Italian charm in New York City. This beloved café invites visitors to indulge in a taste of authentic Italian pastries and coffee. The aroma of freshly baked cannoli and espresso wafts through the air, captivating passersby. Step inside and you'll be transported to a cozy corner of Italy, with its warm and inviting atmosphere. The friendly staff greets you with a smile as you peruse the menu, offering an array of delectable treats. Caffe Palermo is a must-visit for those seeking a sweet escape and a true taste of Italy in the heart of the city.

📞 +1 212 431 4205

🌐 www.caffepalermo.com/

✉ info@caffepalermo.com

📍 148 Mulberry Street, New York NY

Ferrara Bakery & Café

"Original Espresso"

Ferrara claims to be America's first espresso bar, and whether it is or it is not, patrons can agree that it has been around for a long time. And despite whether they are first, second or third, the quality and quantity of their desserts and espresso merit acclaim. Since 1892, this pastry shop has been serving patrons delicious dolci and even amidst the hustle and bustle of modernity outside, this place still transports you to another era while inside.

+1 212 226 6150

information@ferraracafe.com

195 Grand Street, New York NY

by Jc2084

Dominique Ansel Bakery

"Sweet Haven"

In just a short time since its establishment in 2012, Dominique Ansel Bakery has managed to garner rave reviews and a slew of awards. It's not surprising, considering chef and owner Dominique Ansel is regarded to be one of the best pastry chefs in the country. From a delectable array of cakes and tarts to signature creations like Dominique's Kouign Amann the bakery has more than enough to satisfy your sweet tooth. For a savory contrast, the menu also offers a selection of light bites like salads and sandwiches. Enjoy it all in the glass-enclosed patio at the back.

+1 212 219 2773

www.dominiqueanselny.com/

info@dominiqueansel.com

189 Spring Street, Between Sullivan and Thompson Streets, New York NY

by Resy

Dante

"Popular Italian Cafe"

Dante is a charming cafe in Greenwich Village in New York. Located in one of the busiest neighborhoods of the city, this little gem was once an iconic landmark cafe and has seen the likes of celebrities from different walks of life. Today, this revamped cafe is a reflection of new meets old, with a fresh new menu and dining space and at the same time the walls adorning old photographs of celebrities who visited this place. Popular even today among locals, this place is flocked by hungry diners waiting to gorge on classic Italian dishes which are served here with the utmost attention to presentation. Visit the restaurant for reminiscing the cafes good old days and some delectable Italian dishes.

+1 212 982 5275

www.dante-nyc.com/

dante@dante-nyc.com.

79-81 MacDougal Street, New York NY

by "Nathan Dumlaio on Unsplash" on Unsplash

Spot Dessert Bar

"Sugar for the Body"

Spot Dessert Bar offers popular ice creams and pastries with an Asian twist. With quirky flavors like Green Tea in the Thai Tea Creme Brulee, berries in Yuzu Eskimo and jasmine in the Kabocha Brulee cake, this dessert shop adds a new dimension to the average American dessert. There are pastries and ice creams too and the shop is a colorful mix of sweet treats for the sweet lovers. There is Oreo, tapioca, brownie, raspberry and nata de coco ice cream, among other flavors. The Spot Dessert Bar also has catering and delivery services.

+44 212 677 5670

www.spotdessertbar.com/

contact@spotdessertbar.com

13 Saint Marks Place, New York NY

by Kobby Mendez on Unsplash

ChikaLicious Dessert Bar

"Dessert Delight"

This swanky little eatery is one of the most popular hangouts for a casual meet or a dessert date. Desserts are a source of endless creativity for the innovative chefs - it isn't often you'll get to try a warm chocolate tart with pink peppercorn ice-cream and red wine sauce. If you're not a chocaholic, there are plenty of other options, including spiced pound cake with a dollop of cream. ChikaLicious is not for calorie counters but for some highly original sweet indulgence, it's well worth a stop.

+1 212 995 9511

www.chikalicious.com/

chikalicious.dessert@gmail.com

203 East 10th Street, Between 2nd and 1st Avenue, New York NY

by Eiliv-Sonas Aceron on Unsplash

Magnolia Bakery

"Old Fashioned Sweets"

Old-fashioned goodness is chic at this Greenwich Village bakery and café. Many trendsetters are spotted nibbling on cupcakes with chocolate, mocha or white buttercream icing. Their cakes are also hard to resist and the beautiful presentation makes them perfect for special occasions. The Hummingbird Cake is particularly enticing, made with bananas, pineapple and pecans, and covered gingerly with cream cheese icing. Since they bake on the premises, this cafe is also quite entertaining. You can watch the diligent bakers work their magic right before your eyes. They also deliver at select locations.

+1 212 462 2572

www.magnoliabakery.com/blogs/stores/bleecker-street

hello@magnoliabakery.com

401 Bleecker Street, At West 11th Street, New York NY

by Misaochan

Max Brenner Chocolate

"Food for the Gods"

Are you possessed with the nagging urge for chocolate that you just can not get over? Well, this dessert house will bail you out with its notorious cocoa concoctions. Sip hot, dark or white chocolate, or a creamy, fragrant cappuccino. To break your fast in the morning there are strawberry-topped waffles, peanut butter brioche French toast, or bagels and pastries. Then crepes, lasagna, sausages, salmon quiche, salads and soups are up for grabs for lunch. Let your kids squeal over the specialties crafted for them in the menu. If you are prone to piling on the pounds, avail of the reduced calories menu that cuts back the flab while you take the choco ride!

+1 646 467 8803

maxbrenner.com/pages/union-square-nyc

841 Broadway, Between 13th and 14th Streets, New York NY

by [unreadable] on Unsplash

Milk Bar East Village

"These Desserts Are Just Peachy"

Momofuku means "lucky peach" and that's exactly what you'll feel like when you walk in the door. The food is exactly what it sounds like: baked goods (cookies, breads, cakes, pies and a few savory items), and a selection of creatively flavored milks, soft-serve and various toppings. All baked goods can be made to go, including wedding cakes and other specialties. Decor is minimal, with an industrial kitchen-meets-bakery style. For something different, try the compost cookie, made with pretzels and potato chips, a slice of crack pie, and some cereal milk to wash it down.

+1 646 692 4154

milkbarstore.com/

help@milkbarstore.com

251 East 13th Street, Corner of 13th and 2nd Avenue, New York NY

by neillandreville

Tea & Sympathy

"Tea & Sympathy"

Tea & Sympathy is a cozy little spot that features one of the most authentic British experiences in the city, or practically anywhere else for that matter. The small shop serves up buttery scones, treacle pudding and steak and kidney pie. Portions are generous, the service comforting and atmosphere laid-back. The walls are covered with humorous newspaper clippings from Britain. Adjacent is the restaurant's take-out store, where expatriates and Anglophiles can stock up on their favorite English items.

+1 212 807 8329

www.teaandsympathy.com/

info@teaandsympathy.com

108 Greenwich Avenue, New York NY

by MasterMirgent

Brooklyn Farmcy & Soda Fountain

"Taste the Nostalgia"

For a taste of old-school New York, come to this former apothecary, now known as the Brooklyn Farmcy and Soda Fountain. The Farmcy now is a classic soda fountain, where guests can come to get a taste of delicious ice cream and nostalgia. Monster sundaes, milkshakes, egg creams, and sparkling sodas are what the place is really known for. However, they also offer up a solid menu of classic American dishes like grilled cheese or meatloaf sandwiches. Kids and adults alike can enjoy the tasty offerings in this delightfully old-timey soda fountain.

+1 718 522 6260

www.brooklynfarmcyand
sodafountain.com/

brooklynfarmcy@gmail.com

513 Henry Street, Brooklyn, New York NY

by Anthony Espinosa on Unsplash

Billy's Bakery

"Happiness is a Warm Bun"

If you are greeted with a pat on the head and hoisted up on a stool, you know you are in Billy's Bakery. Very old-school retro, from the walls to the wallpaper, it is indeed charming given that it is New York. Fancy a cupcake, cookie, chocolate or muffin? Then Billy's bakery is the way to head. Cakes can be ordered from Billy's Bakery a day in advance, and if something elaborate, maybe two.

+1 212 647 9406

billysbakerynyc.com/pages/chelsea

184 9th Avenue, Between 21st and 22nd Street, New York NY

by Resy

Empire Diner

"Revived NYC Diner"

After a brief hiatus, this iconic New York diner was reopened and revived under celebrity chef Amanda Freitag in January 2014. The restaurant offers popular dishes and quintessential comfort foods like matzo ball soup, cheesecakes and much more. The menu comprises of diner food-made-chic, thanks to Freitag's culinary flair. Try the buffalo skate wings or go for the Empire Burger, there is nothing here that will leave you disappointed.

+1 212 335 2277

empire-diner.com/

info@empire-diner.com

210 Tenth Avenue, At West 22nd Street, New York NY

by Ariana Suárez on Unsplash

Steve's Authentic Key Lime Pies

"Pie Perfection."

Steve's Authentic Key Lime Pie is your gateway to Brooklyn's most delectable pies. Grab a slice and pull a chair by their colorful picnic tables to set yourself an indulgent fare. In addition to the melt-in-the-mouth key lime pies, the bakery offers an assortment of tempting desserts such as the Swingle, which is a signature tart dipped in Belgian chocolate. The fame and allure of the decadent offerings here are quite widespread; do head to Steve's Authentic Key Lime Pie at the earliest for a slice of pure deliciousness.

+1 718 858 5333

keylime.com/

inquiry@keylime.com

185 Van Dyke Street, Brooklyn, New York NY

by Louis Hansel on Unsplash

Ayza Wine & Chocolate Bar

"Sensational Chocolate and Wine"

Ayza Wine and Chocolate Bar located in Midtown, provides a perfect fine-dining experience focusing solely on chocolate and wine. With an impressive selection of wines and champagnes, Ayza has something to delight every palate. If you have no knowledge of wines, fear not as they are happy to organize an intimate wine tasting and food pairing for your visit. With perfect decor that is elegant and classy yet at the same time cozy, and the perfect combination of exquisite wine and chocolate, Ayza has a sensual ambiance perfect for a romantic evening. Be sure to try their famed White Truffle Pizza and sip on a Chocolate Martini if you are not in the mood for wine. Visit their website for more details on special events like Couples Night, Girls Night Out and others.

+1 212 714 2992

ayzany.com/

info@ayzany.com

11 West 31st Street, New York NY

by blandinejoannic

Patisserie Tomoko

"Perfect Fusion"

If you're on the lookout for something a little more special and unique than the usual sweet treat, head to Patisserie Tomoko. Here, you will find a perfectly balanced fusion of traditional French baking with the simplicity, ingredients and tasteful restraint of Japanese cuisine. It is divided into two sections, a more casual, take-out pastry and dessert counter and a sit-down section where diners can enjoy sophisticated dessert and drink and wine pairings from the full bar, both sections with their own respective offerings. Menu items known to have grace the kitchen at Tomoko include Mochi, green tea cheese tarts, and classic French macarons, as well as the special, daily changing offerings on the dine-in dessert menu.

+1 718 388 7121

patisserietomoko.com/

sweets@patisserietomoko.com

568 Union Avenue, Brooklyn, New York NY

by Jim.henderson

The Lemon Ice King of Corona

"The Lemon Ice King of Corona"

The family of owner Peter Benfaremo (the self-proclaimed Lemon Ice King of Corona) has been serving up Italian ices in this Queens location of for over 50 years. The ices come in dozens of flavors, ranging from standards like lemon, coconut and chocolate to exotics like peanut butter, cantaloupe and raspberry. All are made with fresh ingredients. Expect to wait for your ice as there is almost always a line, especially in the summer.

+1 718 699 5133

jbarbacc@hotmail.com

52-02 108th Street, Between 52nd and Corona Avenue, New York NY

JOIN US AT:
cityseeker.com

TERMS & CONDITIONS | PRIVACY POLICY | API | CONTACT US | Copyright (C) 2024 CITYSEEKER