Sing Sing Karaoke

"Sing Along!"

At Sing Sing Karaoke, you can have a great time singing all the latest songs, whether at the bar or in the private rooms. The private rooms are available at an hourly rate per person. Although usually open to all age groups, the venue is closed to under-21s post 10p on Fridays and Saturdays. Although there is a full drinks menu, food is not served; delivery from nearby restaurants is permitted.

NEMO NYC

"Eating, Drinking, Singing!"

NEMO NYC is the perfect place if what you're looking to do is eat, drink and sing your heart out! There is Korean cuisine to be had, and there is also a full bar. The prices are always reasonable, but the reward for visiting between 1 and 7p daily is particularly good: there is 50 percent off on karaoke during this period. There are many packages you can choose from, including those that are specially designed for children. If, for some strange reason, you want to give the karaoke a miss but still want the food on the menu, NEMO NYC has a delivery service to meet your needs.

Planet Rose

"Funky Planet!"

The zebra striped couches and psychedelic lights are what most people associate with Planet Rose. The decor seems to grab the most attention, but the karaoke is equally impressive. Those with stage fright will love this place, simply because there is no sign of a stage. Patrons are given wireless microphones, so that they can give a great performance without ever getting out of their seats. This funky hangout spot also makes a great venue for private parties.

32 Karaoke

"Sing Into The Morning"

32 Karaoke is from the same guys behind Gagopa, and is one of the best places in Koreatown to let your hair down and sing out to your heart's content. The space features seven distinct, futuristic looking rooms accentuated by edgy geometric designs, eclectic lighting and pop star posters. You can choose from the latest hits to old classics from their impressive collection. There's wine and beer to keep the voices and spirits high, and you can also order a pizza from nearby to curb your hunger pangs.
