

"Best Antiques in New York"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 11 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by alexkerhead ©

White Trash

"Pick Through the Trash"

Offering a plethora of old-world furnishings, White Trash is one classy store. Vintage table ware, designer antiques and any furniture worth its salt from the 1940s to the 1970s is available in this tiny store. Pick up a nice lamp for your table or a vase for the dining room. You can also grab a classic book or an African motif. Be a part of their mailing list for regular updates on new items and other such information. Check website for more details.

☎ +1 212 598 5956

💻 www.whitetrashnyc.com/

📍 304 East 5th Street, New York NY

📷 by smoorenburg ©

Le Fanion Inc

"Housewares from Provence"

This store located in Greenwich Village features exquisite antique furniture and earthenware for the home from Provence. Pottery, decorations, weather vanes and much more fill this tiny Le Fanion in the West Village. There is oven ware, artwork and crystal chandeliers-all of which you are not likely to find elsewhere in New York City. The store gives off a warm, cozy glow, much like the landscape of the south of France.

☎ +1 212 463 8760

💻 www.lefanion.com/

✉ lefanion@erols.com

📍 299 West 4th Street, Corner of Bank Street, New York NY

📷 by denise carbonell ©

Showplace Antique + Design Center

"Paradise for Antique Aficionados"

In this four-story complex, you will find more than 250 galleries dealing in antiques, vintage home furnishings, jewelry and more. At Antique Rose, you can buy vintage lamps and items made of porcelain, sterling silver, bronze and glass. Ashville Fine Art specializes in bronze sculptures, while Cem Collection's specialty is European and Islamic antiques. Showplace Antique+Design Center has everything antique aficionados could possibly want.

☎ +1 212 633 6063

💻 nyshowplace.com/

✉ info@nyshowplace.com

📍 40 West 25th Street, New York NY

📷 by Associated Fabrication ©

New York Vintage

"Very Vintage, Very Versatile"

New York Vintage has established itself in the minds of locals and tourists alike. The range of vintage 1980s and 1990s dresses, accessories and outfits that are stocked here is immense and most definitely a cut above the rest. The prices are a bit high-end, but well worth the effort given the style and design. The fashion store also offers to buy classic clothing from their customers. If you are a fan of vintage then this is one place you should definitely not miss!

Yesterday's News

"Old Wonders"

Old is truly gold. All the items at Yesterday's News might be old, but they sure haven't lost their shine. Browse through the passel of old silverware, furniture and jewelry and you might find a treasure here. You need a lot of patience, as the store isn't very well organized. Giving a home-feel, you can spend hours here just picking and shifting through it all.

by denise carbonell

+1 917 375 1361

www.brownstonetreasures.com/www.brownstonetreasures.com/Yesterday's_News_Photos.html

428 Court Street, Brooklyn NY

Artists & Fleas

"Rare Finds"

If you are bored with the collection at showrooms and sophisticated boutiques, and are in search for something unique, Artists & Fleas will definitely please you. This market is a hub for rare finds created or sought by local designers and artists. More than 60 vendors entice shoppers with vintage wear, jewelry, handicrafts and other knick-knacks. A great place to witness the local scene, Artists & Fleas makes for a delightful shopping experience.

+1 212 301 5765

www.artistsandfleas.com/

70 North 7th Street, Between Wythe & Kent, New York NY

Furnish Green

"Eco-Friendly Furnishings"

If you want to furnish your home with antiques, Furnish Green would be a great place to start your hunt for the perfect items. This eco-friendly store is filled with antique dressers, beds, light fixtures, mirrors, trunks, side tables and more. All the pieces in the store, especially the beds, are steamed and vacuumed as a precaution against pests.

by Berenice Decados

+1 917 583 9051

www.furnishgreen.com/ furnishgreen@gmail.com

1261 Broadway, Suite 505, Between 31st & 32nd Street, New York NY

The Manhattan Art and Antiques Center

"Americana Antiques"

This rather large and impressive antiques dealer has over 100 opulent galleries filled with prized American, African, Asian and European pieces. The Manhattan Art and Antiques Center is open to the general public and charges no admission fee. The center is best known for its art pieces, antique furniture, silverware and porcelain. There is also jewelry, bronze, medallions, baskets, glass, fine rugs and tapestries forming an unending selection of collectibles. Services include watch and clock repairs, appraisals and even rug and tapestry mending. So for a bit of intrigue to hang up on the office wall or display in the master bedroom, pick a piece at The Manhattan Art and Antiques Center.

+1 212 355 4400

www.the-maac.com info@the-maac.com

1050 Second Avenue, 56th Street, New York NY

by Menashri ©

Stray Vintage

"Secondhand Treasures"

At Stray Vintage in Queens, there aren't many things you can't find. Containing a large selection of secondhand knickknacks, trinkets, home decorations, and other miscellanea, Stray is a favorite among New Yorkers always looking for those one-of-a-kind items. Many of the items featured in the store are created by local artists and craftsman, so you'll feel good putting money back into the local community. Visit the store today to find that special item you never knew you were missing.

+1 718 779 7795

strayvintage.wordpress.com/

4809 Skillman Avenue, Sunnyside NY

JOIN US AT:
cityseeker.com

TERMS & CONDITIONS | PRIVACY POLICY | API | CONTACT US | Copyright (C) 2020 CITYSEEKER