

"Best Shops for Women in Boston"

Created By: Cityseeker

📍 2 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Daderot at en.wikipedia ©

Newbury Street

"Upscale Shopping Street"

Any shopper will enjoy a stroll down this street, which features eight blocks of upscale boutiques, shops, restaurants, cafes and bars. On warm weekends, the sidewalks are teeming with window shoppers, street performers and overflowing outdoor cafes. Art galleries showcase a diverse array of contemporary and traditional works, creating a feast for the eyes. Located in the historic Back Bay, much of the brownstone architecture is influenced by the Art Nouveau style of the 1920s. In addition, chic galleries and restaurants, such as Stephanie's on Newbury, attract a sophisticated crowd.

📞 +1 617 266 1991

🌐 www.newburystboston.com/

✉ info@newburystboston.com

📍 Newbury Street, Boston MA

📷 by tunecheck83 ©

Brodney Antiques and Jewelry

"Estate Jewelry"

Established back in 1939, Brodney's is a family-owned boutique specializing in antiques and estate jewelry. With over seven decades in the business, they pride themselves on unrivaled service and a personal touch that's hard to replicate. Explore two levels of rare artifacts, Asian and European fine art work, paintings and antique objects with a unique story to tell. The place is a favorite among couples looking for vintage engagement rings and wedding bands, with an array of affordable pieces on offer. The inventory also includes retro accessories, pocket watches, cuff links, sunglasses, silverware, clocks, china, porcelain, ceramics and exquisite home decor.

📞 +1 617 536 0500

✉ info@brodney.com

📍 145 Newbury Street, Boston MA

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com