Inn at Pearl Street

"Themed, Centrally-Located B&B"

The Inn at Pearl Street, built in 1896, is a beautiful example of Greek Revival architecture. Chosen as a Designer Showcase, the eclectic interior is as exquisite as the tree-shaded exterior. There are four rooms inside as well as a carriage house available for let, each with a different theme such as Gothic or Oriental. Each room has its own special features, such as a jacuzzi, parlor or private balcony. The Inn is situated at the intersection of Pearl Street and MLK Jr. Boulevard, but its serene atmosphere makes it feel far removed from the bustling nearby campus.

Austin Folk House B&B

"Cozy Inn Near Campus"

Tucked away just behind The Drag, the stretch of Guadalupe Street that runs along the University of Texas campus, Austin Folk House Bed and Breakfast provides a welcome retreat from the harried campus area. Each of the nine guest rooms is uniquely furnished with new and antique pieces, and all have en-suite bathrooms. In the mornings, a homemade breakfast spread includes freshly made sweet and savory dishes, fresh fruit and coffee. Freshly baked cookies are available at any time. Knowledgeable innkeepers can help visitors find their way to Austin landmarks and venues. A large outdoor porch provides a cozy spot to eat breakfast on breezy mornings, or enjoy a balmy summer evening.

Heywood Hotel

"Living King Size"

Intimate and chic, this East Austin hotel delights guests with its home-away-from-home vibe and modern amenities. The vibrant art scene synonymous with East Austin is clearly reflected in the designs of this boutique seven-room property. From the longleaf pinewood floors, to the artwork adorning the pastel walls to the rooftop courtyard, every element intertwines perfectly to create a retro pied-à-terre in the heart of the art district. While each of the seven bedrooms is swathed in amenities like internet jukebox, coffee service and designer toiletries, the Queen Balcony on the second floor surpasses the others with its private balcony. Book ahead to experience one of world's best new hotels of 2013 (Conde Nast Traveler).
