The Driskill

"Historic Downtown Beauty"

Austin's most renowned hotel, The Driskill is stylishly grand and opulent. It has recently had the mother of all makeovers. It is an ideal abode because of its proximity to both the corporate as well as the entertainment districts of Austin. The rooms are splendid; each of the 205 guestrooms have been done up in turn-of-the-century Victorian design. If you spend the night look out for the supernatural, some claim this hotel is haunted. Take a walk down the beautiful lobby bedecked with hand-made marble, hand-painted ceilings and a custom-made stained glass dome. Such luxury is hard to leave behind!

Inn at Pearl Street

"Themed, Centrally-Located B&B"

The Inn at Pearl Street, built in 1896, is a beautiful example of Greek Revival architecture. Chosen as a Designer Showcase, the eclectic interior is as exquisite as the tree-shaded exterior. There are four rooms inside as well as a carriage house available for let, each with a different theme such as Gothic or Oriental. Each room has its own special features, such as a jacuzzi, parlor or private balcony. The Inn is situated at the intersection of Pearl Street and MLK Jr. Boulevard, but its serene atmosphere makes it feel far removed from the bustling nearby campus.

"Living King Size"

Intimate and chic, this East Austin hotel delights guests with its home-away-from-home vibe and modern amenities. The vibrant art scene synonymous with East Austin is clearly reflected in the designs of this boutique seven-room property. From the longleaf pinewood floors, to the artwork adorning the pastel walls to the rooftop courtyard, every element intertwines perfectly to create a retro pied-à-terre in the heart of the art district. While each of the seven bedrooms is swathed in amenities like internet jukebox, coffee service and designer toiletries, the Queen Balcony on the second floor surpasses the others with its private balcony.
