

"Best Brew Pubs/Local Brews in Austin"

Created By: Cityseeker

 5 Locations Bookmarked

 by Bex.Walton

Wright Bros Brew & Brew

"Beans & Brews"

Whenever you are looking for the perfect suds, visit this cafe where you can get yours in form of a Cappuccino or a frothy beer. It's all about brewing at Wright Bros, it doesn't matter if the shop brings in roasted beans for its coffee or local Texan brewmasters for its beer. The bar has 38 different taps and though most are local, guests can still find some international and national brands. The small space does not have room for a kitchen, but Wright Bros. still provides some light snacks and bites from restaurants and cafes around Austin.

 +1 512 493 0963

 www.thebrewandbrew.com/

 info@thebrewandbrew.com

 500 San Marcos Street, Suite 105, Austin TX

 by DanielPolak

Black Sheep Lodge

"Neighborhood Delight"

A lively atmosphere and friendly crowd make for a fun evening at the Black Sheep Lodge, whether you're here to catch a game or simply hang out with friends. A popular local institution, the bar offers a varied list of wines, cocktails and no less than 26 beers on tap. The food menu offers starters and light bites like sandwiches and hot dogs. Burgers at the Black Sheep deserve a special mention and should not be missed. With a large number of screens occupying every corner of the space, you'll never miss any sporting action. The outdoor patio is a popular hangout when there's no game in progress. Check website for more.

 +1 512 707 2744

 www.blacksheeploodge.com/

 2108 South Lamar Boulevard, Austin TX

 by stux

The Austin Beer Garden Brewing Co.

"Beer and More"

The Austin Beer Garden Brewing Company, better known as simply "the ABGB," offers beers ranging from dry beer to Belgian ales. The sandwiches, pizzas and pies make good accompaniments, and the salads come as a welcome explosion of refreshment. Guests can buy ABGB merchandise from a store. The ABGB premises also doubles as a great concert venue. The ABGB has already won the Great American Beer Festival Brewpub Of The Year award for three straight years—2016, 2017 and 2018. They have a solid beer selection with a great deal of lagers and pilsners! The pizzas are just right, but you could try some of their other fare, which also passes muster. The staff are friendly and only too eager to serve. There's seating inside and out. They have a live band perform inside.

 +1 512 298 2242

 theabgb.com/

 yall@theabgb.com

 1305 West Olmorf Street, Austin TX

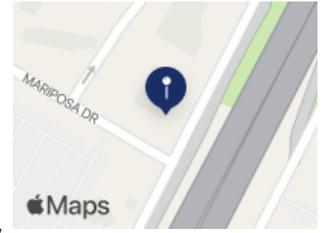

by david_mah

Whip In

"South Austin-Style Indian Food"

Whip In has Indian-infused breakfast items available until 2 p.m., perfect for late risers. Naan (Indian flatbread), scrambled eggs, cheese and your choice of chutney (a spiced, Indian condiment) makes up the breakfast naan (cilantro chutney is rather appetizing). As if that wasn't enough, they also have an impressive beer selection on tap, a vegan/vegetarian grocery aisle, a wine and beer area, and a tobacconist with Indian candles & incense.

+1 512 442 5337

1950 IH35 South, Austin TX

by pasevichbogdan

Draught House Pub & Brewery

"German Beer Garden"

A bit off the beaten path, Draught House Pub & Brewery provides welcome relief from downtown's Sixth Street. The European pub atmosphere and exhaustive selection of imported drafts make this bar a favorite among locals and visitors alike. The seating is excellent, with high-backed wooden seats and very thick wooden tables. Come visit on Wednesday for pitcher night with free pizza or on Saturday with free bratwurst.

+1 512 452 6258

www.draughthouse.com

4112 Medical Parkway, Austin TX

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com