"Upscale, Simple Sophistication"

The premise behind this upscale store is simple: sophisticated fashion that allows the wearer to express their individual style. Looks are classic, yet hip and contemporary. Designer lines of shoes, clothing and accessories include Diesel, BCBG, Jill Stuart, Vivienne Tam, Theory and Kate Spade. By George, what a lovely place to shop!

Feathers Boutique

"Crazy About Vintage"

Austin is ripe for vintage fashion, especially on South Congress. Located on this street, Feathers Boutique might be small in size, but is big on personality. They tend to offer 1970s retro attire mixed with boho chic and some very feminine styles. Every corner of this store seems to have some treat or theme, so you are sure to find something that really excites you. They sell not just apparel, but shoes and gorgeous accessories to match! If you are bold about your love for retro chic, this is definitely the place to go.

Blue Velvet

"Timeless Clothes"

Fabulous clothes are available at bargain prices at this store. Blue Velvet specializes in vintage clothing for men and women. Step into clothes from the 1940s to the 1970s. From Hawaiian shirts to swanky hats and ties, one will never be disappointed here. The big sellers seem to be pea coats, golf and bowling shirts and racing jackets. You'll also find small furniture items and knick-knacks. The shop has also been voted as one of the best thrift shops by various publications, including the Austin Chronicle.

ATown

"Austin Artist Superstore"

To call ATown a boutique is erroneous--it's actually pretty big! Support crafty, creative Austin artists by shopping at this store to keep the good karma flowing; if you keep paying for their work, they will continue to provide you with high-quality art (like wall paintings inspired by famous Austin landmarks), accessories (like colorful bracelets manufactured out of Legos), and clothing (like cute tees for vegetarians that proudly advertise their lifestyle), amongst other things (like eco-friendly candles).
