Cafe Du Parc

"Continental Charm"

Located adjacent to the historic Willard InterContinental Hotel is this popular, charming bistro, serving traditional French fare. On a beautiful day, enjoy the outdoor seating on Pennsylvania Avenue and watch the world go by. The food is simple but perfectly prepared and flavored. Many of the classics are here, from steak with bearnaise sauce to moules a la marinier. Diners have also raved about the pastries, which could be straight from a French boulangerie, freshly baked and decadently buttery. This is a fantastic restaurant to impress a first date at, or simply come to enjoy the company of friends and family.

1789 Restaurant

"Classic & Romantic Dining"

1789 Restaurant, a formal, elegant restaurant in Georgetown, is a Washington favorite. Its Federal-era architecture is nicely accentuated by burning fireplaces and classic linen-and-silver table settings. A wide range of New American entrees are featured on the menu. There are fine vegetarian offerings as well as non-vegetarian delicacies like Berkshire Pork Chop and grilled rack of lamb. The desserts here are similarly divine and you can also refresh your appetite with an invigorating martini or an Irish coffee after your meal.
