

"Best Parks in Miami"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 10 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Pietro ©

Jungle Island

"Get Close to the Birds"

A delightful place for the kids as well as adults, Jungle Island is a great way to spend a day outdoors. Located just minutes away from downtown Miami, the park is full of birds and animals. It was started by Franz and Louise Scherr, who wanted a place for their birds to fly free. Today the park is also home to many animals such as penguins, orangutans, crocodiles and even tigers. There's also the Treetop Ballroom where nature fans can have their events, planned to the last detail by their in-house staff.

📞 +1 305 400 7000

🌐 jungleisland.com/

✉ guestrelations@jungleisland.com

📍 1111 Parrot Jungle Trail, Miami FL

📷 by NamuLim ©

Alice Wainwright Park

"Park by the Bay"

Tucked away in a relatively unknown corner in the Coral Way neighborhood of Miami, this nature park offers striking views of both Biscayne Bay and Downtown Miami. The park features trails, fitness stations, a playground, a basketball court, as well as picnic tables and barbecues. These features, combined with the magnificent views, make the park a great spot to have a picnic or barbecue with friends or family, or just to spend a nice day outside.

📞 +1 305 416 1400 (City Park Council)

✉ bondoversight@ci.miami.fl.us

📍 2845 Brickell Avenue, Miami FL

📷 by jared422_80 ©

Vizcaya Museum & Gardens

"A Gorgeous Manor"

Vizcaya Museum & Gardens is an exquisite villa that overlooks the stream. This lavish Italian villa takes you back in time and lets you explore the beautiful architecture, furnishings and other details of the past era. The gardens at this spot are simply spectacular where you can stroll along the trail area and click some great pictures. The place also provides a panoramic view of Miami skyline. Since it was a former home of the local industrialist, it consists of several arts and collectibles that are unique. A great place to have some high-end private events. Every room at this magnificent villa has a story to tell. A must visit if you're in the neighborhood.

📞 +1 305 250 9133

🌐 www.vizcayamuseum.org/

✉ vizcayainformation@vizcayamuseum.org

📍 3251 South Miami Avenue, Miami FL

Historic Virginia Key Beach Park

"Colorful History"

Included in the U.S. National Register of Historic Places, the Historic Virginia Key Beach Park is an important landmark. Originally a "colored-only" park during the 1950s, this park was renovated and reopened to all during 2008 after a period of closure. The various sites and venues include a picnic pavilion, playground, toy train for kids, a carousel and many other fun activities. Its picturesque setting combined with modern facilities make it an ideal venue for hosting private events, picnics and parties.

+1 305 960 4600

www.virginiakeybeachpark.net/

vkbpt@miamigov.com

4020 Virginia Beach Drive, Key Biscayne FL

by Terra-Nova Sadowski ©

Miami Beach Botanical Garden

"Beach Botanical Garden"

The 2.6-acre (1.05-hectare) Miami Beach Botanical Garden showcases a wide variety of plant specimens. In order to attract visitors, it does not charge any admission fee. Regular educational programs and art exhibitions are held at this garden. Tours around the place are also offered. In addition, the garden's Banyan Room and terrace, Butterfly Room and Japanese Garden are available for reservations year round for weddings and other functions.

+1 305 673 7256

www.mbgarden.org/

cbrown@mbgarden.org

2000 Convention Center Drive, Miami Beach FL

by googlisti ©

+1 305 673 7730

South Pointe Park

"Picnic Park"

South Pointe Park is a perfect place for a family bonding session. All you have to carry is your picnic basket laden with fruits, sandwiches and bottles of lemonade. You can take a stroll along the beach or just laze around in the sand with helicopters flying overhead. It also has a playground for kids. An apt way to spend your day.

www.miamibeachfl.gov/parksand recreation/scroll.aspx?id=57993

1 Washington Avenue, Miami Beach FL

by Brandon Trentler ©

+1 305 361 5421

Crandon Park

"Key Biscayne At its Best"

Crandon Park is three miles (3.21 kilometres) of sandy beach, park area with an 18-hole golf course, soccer and softball fields. The beach is named as one of the top ten in the United States. The park also includes a promenade, concession stands, picnic areas and an amusement area. The amusement area is home to an antique carousel, a splash fountain, an outdoor roller rink and a beach-front playground.

www.miamidade.gov/parks/parks/crandon_beach.asp

6747 Crandon Boulevard, Key Biscayne FL

by Alexf ©

+1 305 667 1651

Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden

"Extensive Botanical Garden"

Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden is an 83-acre (34 hectare) haven for rare and endangered tropical plants. Located in a seaside Miami suburb, the garden offers educational programs in conservation and horticulture, and houses extensive botanical research facilities. The garden has encouraged the preservation and appreciation of tropical plants since its establishment in 1938.

10901 Old Cutler Road, Coral Gables FL

by Brandon Trentler

Enchanted Forest Elaine Gordon Park

"An Oasis in North Miami"

Enchanted Forest Elaine Gordon Park is an ideal spot for parties, picnics or general merriment. Spread across 22 acres (8.9 hectares), the park is also on hand for public presentations to area clubs, groups and schools. Children's activities include nature walks, pony rides and scavenger/bug hunts.

+1 305 895 1119

www.miamidade.gov/filmiami/gallery/Enchanted_Forest3185FE.asp

1725 Northeast 135th Street, North Miami FL

by Marcos COMUNE

Pinecrest Gardens

"Culture Park"

This little park in the heart of the city offers a relaxing escape and tons of activities for adults and children alike. Kids can discover a rich array of plant life at the lush botanical garden or get up close with fascinating animals at the petting zoo. The playground and Splash N' Play area is where the kids can run amok and play to their heart's content. The beautiful picnic areas in the park ensure that families can partake in the fun. Besides this, the park is a hub of creative and cultural activity, hosting numerous concerts, performing art events and other cultural activities throughout the year. Check website for more.

+1 305 669 6990

pinecrest-fl.gov/index.aspx?page=34

gardens@pinecrest-fl.gov

11000 Southwest 57th Avenue, Pinecrest FL

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com