Ye Rustic Inn

"Great Neighborhood Bar"

Ye Rustic Inn is a bar that perfectly serves the hip Los Feliz area. This casual two-room watering hole is a comfortable spot that's welcoming to both the aging regulars and the on-their-way-to-Hollywood younger crowd. The main room has a long, beaten-up bar filled with the kind of extras you only see in an Oliver Stone film. The back room offers booths for a more private night out. You can't build this kind of place—it has to age like fine wine.

33 Taps

"All-American Bar"

With its large screen TVs, a food menu featuring all-time favorites like burgers, fish & chips, chicken wings, wraps, pizzas and sliders, and a full bar boasting an astounding 33 draft beers on tap, 33 Taps is clearly an all American bar. The decor and ambiance blend the comfort of a neighborhood dive with the style of a modern gastropub, creating a place that is lively and full of cheer. While the menu is fairly priced, the happy hour specials are simply spectacular, drawing in large crowds of happy revelers. The service is a bit spotty, but 33 Taps remains a great place to hangout with friends, provided you're not in a hurry.

Jameson's Irish Pub

"Whiskey, beer and ribs all go green!"

It's a well known fact that the Irish love their sport with a good brew and food. Jameson's has made its name as one of the recognized sports bars in Hollywood. They serve a wide selection of whiskeys and a list of well brewed beer that you can choose to have while watching your game. They can play pretty much any game on the TVs ranging from favorite Irish teams to boxing matches. Their food is something people would love to come back for. Another factor that has led to the popularity of this pub and sports bar is that it is quite affordable. You can hardly find anything on the menu that goes over 10 dollars. So come and down to have whiskey or a pint.

38 Degrees Ale House & Grill

"Local Sports Bar"

This Alhambra watering hole is known for its outstanding brews and tasty upscale pub grub. Opened in 2009, 38 Degrees Ale House & Grill has maintained quite the following of loyal patrons. The interiors resemble a typical sports bar, minus the neon signs and with a whole lot more of natural lighting. The bar is lined with premium bottles and numerous taps, with flat screen televisions mounted to the wall playing the latest game. Tall bar height tables line the room where you'll see patrons taste testing a variety of beer flights.

Barney's Beanery

"Solo or Group Fun"

Popular for decades, Barney's is many things to many people: for some it is a great casual restaurant with a huge menu, for others it is an always crowded bar loaded with people of all ages and backgrounds. It is even a great place to have a drink and play some pool after work, with a beer list almost as prodigious as the menu. It is one of the few bars that has always been a hot tourist spot, yet has been a longstanding favorite of locals as well. Be sure to ask around for stories of Jim Morrison and Janis Joplin, both of whom spent time within these walls. It is a little piece of Hollywood history, and with new branches opened in nearby locations, the tradition is sure to continue.
