The Smell

"What's That Smell?"

You know that any club featuring bands called Vomit Bomb and The Pukers on the same night probably isn't a place to take the parents. The Smell is a small, bare-bones warehouse showcasing the best of underground art and music. The club name possibly derives from the musty aroma that hangs in the air as a result of many sweaty people jammed into such limited space, or perhaps it's a reference to the less-than-glamorous location. Leave your delicate sensibilities at home and enjoy fresh talent. Shows are for all ages, so alcohol isn't on the menu but vegan snacks and tea are!

Avalon Hollywood

"Hollywood Playhouse"

Avalon Hollywood began its life as a theater in 1927, and ever since has undergone numerous name changes, and staged several theatrical events and musical concerts, such as: 'Caesar & Cleopatra', and 'The Vagabond King'. This venue is also home to the first ever American Music Awards, and has held concerts for Nirvana, Soundgarden, Smashing Pumpkins, and the Beastie Boys. It is a club, venue, a host to special events, restaurant and more. With flashing lights and a thumping beat, it's like a dance paradise in the heart of Hollywood. The music is like a magnet for your feet, making you move and groove all night. And when you need a break, their tasty bites give you the energy to keep going. It's a place where the music never stops, and the fun is always on the menu.

The Viper Room

"Celeb-Studded Hangout"

Once owned by actor Johnny Depp, this notorious ultra-hot bar is known for its cutting-edge music and celebrity-studded scene. Depp and his co-owners continue to book major music acts and intriguing unknowns to entertain the glitzy crowd. Be prepared to wait in line unless you are famous. Viper Room is one of the brightest (dark) spots in West Hollywood, and one which any self-respecting club-goer would put high on their list. Cover varies; check the calendar for occasional discount passwords.

Whisky a Go Go

"Rock the House"

Whisky a Go Go is truly steeped in the very roots of rock history. In addition to being the joint that spawned the term "Go-Go Girl," legendary acts like The Doors, Janis Joplin and Buffalo Springfield used to play here. Rock 'n' Rollers still, to this day, flock to this modern-day mecca. It is not an overstatement to call this the premier rock club in Los Angeles, if not the entire world. Try the upstairs area to get away from the crowd and to get a different vantage point.

Alex's Bar

"Rock The Night"

Long Beach is known for its buzzing nightlife scene, and Alex's Bar is one of the most happening places here. Both local and touring bands perform here throughout the week; the booked calendar is ample proof of its popularity. The club also hosts some fun theme nights like karaoke, and trivia nights in addition to its live entertainment. The punk style décor adds a rustic vibe to the place and you can also check out their cool merchandise like T-shirts and accessories. A raging fun night in Long Beach awaits you at Alex's Bar.
