Val Surf

"Surf's Up"

"Surfboards R Us" is what this place should be called, they sell more than 80 different types of surfboards here. From small trofin wave carvers to classic longboards, this surf pro shop has the distinction of being considered the first shop not directly on the beach to sell water wares. If surfing is your thing, browse the California casual wear or create a tropical statement from the hundreds of Hawaiian shirts and bathing suits.

Mollusk Surf Shop

"California Vibes"

With a quintessential Los Angeles address along Pacific Avenue in Venice, this surf shop lives up to its surfer stereotypes with a laid-back vibe and an ultra friendly staff. The down-to-earth atmosphere ushers in shoppers browsing their casual-California apparel for men, women and kids, along with their selection of hand shaped surf boards. A product of its surrounding waves and perpetual sunshine, local art can be seen hanging from the walls next to the bikinis, wet suits and cozy sweats.
