Colosseum at Caesars Palace

"Spectacular Venue"

This popular concert venue can easily pass off as a landmark by itself. The Colosseum is a 4,298-seat, state-of-the-art beauty that is located at Caesars Palace Hotel Casino. Quite a number of popular artists like Elton John, Celine Dion, Cher, Bette Midler, and Jerry Seinfeld have performed at The Colosseum. All the glamor can get a bit blinding and you're requested not to add to it by bringing cameras along.

David Copperfield - MGM Grand Las Vegas

"Big Names, Small Venue"

This glamorous venue, with velvet curtains and a generally glitzy ambiance, offers mega-star entertainment in an intimate setting. The theater has more than 700 seats and every seat has a great view of the stage. Regular performers have included David Copperfield and Billy Joel, just to name a few. The Copperfield show in particular is a one-of-a-kind experience, and audiences are always enthralled by the antics of this legendary illusionist.

UNLV Performing Arts Center

"City's Cultural Hub"

Las Vegas, the land of casinos, nightlife and entertainment needs no further introduction. However, the University of Nevada wanted a center that would re-define this concept and venture into theater and other performing arts, hence the UNLV Performing Arts Center was developed. This center introduces students and Las Vegas community to different aspects of creativity and features drama, concerts, ballet and so forth. This art hub is always buzzing with activities and there is never a single dull moment here. For venue rentals, booking and schedule information, call ahead or check website.
