

"Best Markets in Las Vegas"

Created by: Cityseeker

 5 Locations Bookmarked

 by Skitterphoto

Laos Asia Market

"Exotic Asian Treats"

The Laos Asia Market is a rarity and a hidden gem, tucked away in a strip mall, away from all the glitz and glamor of the Las Vegas Strip. On offer you will find a varied selection of Thai and Laotian groceries, including pickled tamarind leaves, an assortment of noodles, produce, various condiments, cans of tapioca and other hard-to-find goodies. Enjoy authentic Laotian delicacies like Nam Khao, Khao Piek Sen and the ever popular papaya salad from the counter-serve eatery hidden away at the back of the market. Simple and authentic, the food served here promises to give you a true taste of this little known cuisine. Prepared meals and to-go desserts complete the offer at the Laos Asia Market.

 +1 702 650 0245

 3050 East Desert Inn Road, Suite 108, Pecos McLeod Plaza, Winchester, Las Vegas NV

 by Tumisu

Cardenas Market

"Take Home the Flavors of Latin America"

Although Cardenas Market has grown to be a popular chain of supermarkets, it remains a family business that prides itself in treating its customers to only the very best Latin American foods and friendly service. The Cardenas Market at the Loma Vista Shopping Center is chock full of the flavors of Latin America, stocked with all the ingredients you will need to prepare authentic Latin American food at home. Fresh produce and meat are stocked alongside spices, sauces, tortillas, chicharrones, Agua Frescas, homemade salsa and more. There is even a separate section for baked goods and a small eatery that serves up some truly amazing tacos. While the variety of specialty foods on offer is reason enough to pay this store a visit, it is the genuine and friendly service are sure to receive that sets Cardenas Market apart from the rest.

 +1 702 835 8800

 www.cardenasmarkets.com/

 4700 Meadows Lane, Loma Vista Shopping Center, Las Vegas NV

 by aloiswohlfahrt

Nakata Market of Japan

"Japanese Treats Galore"

If you're looking for the ingredients to prepare an authentic Japanese meal at home, a Hello Kitty magnet or a much loved treat that you haven't had the opportunity to savor since you were last in Japan, the Nakata Market of Japan is the answer to your prayers. This specialty food market is stocked with everything from Japanese candy, sake, sauces, tea, miso and mochi, to crockery, gifts, DVDs and magazines. Although relatively small, the market stocks an amazing variety of all things Japan, so don't be surprised if you lose time strolling past shelves that are stocked with a seemingly endless array of intriguing delights.

 +1 702 257 1414

 www.nakatamarket.com/

 2350 South Rainbow Boulevard, Suite 6, Pinoy Market, Las Vegas NV

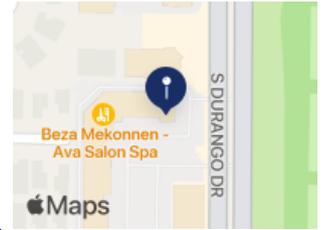

by lesya761

Zaytoon Market & Restaurant

"Kebabs and More"

Whether you're there to shop or eat lunch, Zaytoon Market & Restaurant has a lot to offer. Explore the store which sells Middle Eastern spices and other specialty goods. Get some inspiration for cooking your own delicacies at home from the restaurant, which serves all kinds of kebabs, salads, and sandwiches. The chicken kebab is spectacular and comes with a side of Persian-style rice.

+1 702 685 1875

zaytoonlasvegas.com/index.html

3655 South Durango Drive, Las Vegas NV

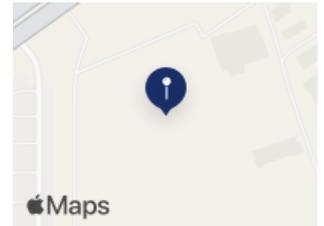

by Domokus

Broadacres Marketplace

"Shopping, Food and Entertainment"

Spread over an area of 44 acres (17.80 hectares), the Broadacres Marketplace is a shoppers' paradise. The flea market features thousands of vendors selling everything from collectibles, antiques, toys and home decor, to clothing, artwork, souvenirs, shoes and much, much more. The marketplace has been around since 1977 and is one of the oldest and largest of its kind in Nevada. Here, you will find just about anything you could possibly want, need or desire at a bargain price. A host of food stalls vie for your attention with delicacies and fusion dishes from all over the world, their wafting aromas mingling together under a single roof. For heartier fare, head to any of the market's six restaurants for a bite to eat. A large stage with covered seating forms the centerpiece of the market on weekends, with live band performances and large-screen TVs screening sports. With so much to explore and experience, the Broadacres Marketplace is akin to a carnival of treasures and delight.

+1 702 642 3777

broadacresm.com/

2930 North Las Vegas Boulevard, Las Vegas NV

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com