

"Best History Museums in Las Vegas"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 6 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by InSapphoWeTrust ©

Titanic: The Artifact Exhibition

"Moving Exhibit"

Featuring artifacts recovered from the sunken wreckage of the famous ship, Titanic: The Artifact Exhibition takes visitors on a journey back in time to teach them about the ship and the passengers on its native voyage. There are several recreated rooms on display, including the grand staircase. On the Promenade Deck portion of the exhibit, you'll be able to experience the cold temperature that the passengers experienced on the night the ship sank.

☎ +1 800 557 7428 (Tickets)

🌐 www.luxor.com/entertainment/titanic.aspx

📍 3900 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Luxor Hotel and Casino, Las Vegas NV

📷 by igloowhite ©

National Atomic Testing Museum

"Little-Known Facts"

History and science unfold at the National Atomic Testing Museum. Get to know why the Nevada Test Site was founded, its above and underground tests and non-nuclear programs. The museum chronicles the past and present of atomic weapons and its effect worldwide. Right from its inception, conception to its advancement in current times, are displayed through various exhibits. These include bombs, testing devices, artefacts and radioactive displays.

☎ +1 702 794 5151

🌐 nationalatomictestingmuseum.org/

✉ info@nationalatomictestingmuseum.org

📍 755 East Flamingo Road, Las Vegas NV

📷 by Calsidyrose ©

UNLV Marjorie Barrick Museum

"Art & Artifacts"

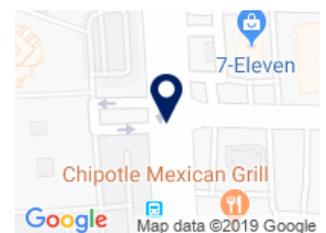

The Marjorie Barrick Museum offers opportunities for visitors to learn about the visual arts. Besides showcasing works from various artists, the museum also has a collection of cultural items from the Southwest and Latin America. You can view Guatemalan and Bolivian textiles, Hopi and Paiute basketry, and Mexican dance masks. Not just for students of the University of Las Vegas, the museum seeks to educate the greater public on these works of art.

☎ +1 702 895 3381

🌐 barrickmuseum.unlv.edu/

✉ barrick.museum@unlv.edu

📍 4505 South Maryland Parkway, University of Nevada, Las Vegas NV

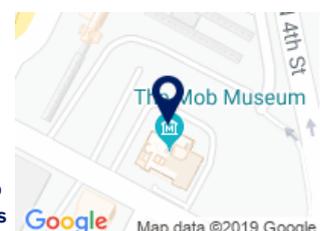

📷 by Kakurady ©

The Mob Museum

"An Offer You Can't Refuse"

The Mob Museum is located in what used to be a courthouse. Built in 1933, it was one of the 14 courthouses in the nation to hold the Kefauver Committee hearings on organized crime. This makes it a perfect backdrop for The Mob Museum, an authentic view of the mob's impact on Las Vegas history. The Mob Museum presents the story from the perspective of both the organized crime syndicate and law enforcement. Visitors get to be part of the action through theater presentations and interactive environments. Visitors can shoot a simulated Tommy gun, listen to real FBI surveillance tapes, and take part in FBI weapons training. The museum can also be booked for private events.

+1 702 229 2734

themobmuseum.org/

info@themobmuseum.org

300 Stewart Avenue, Las Vegas NV

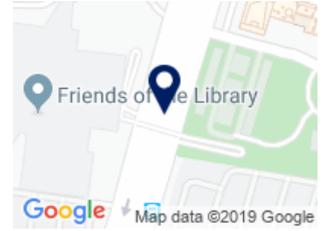

by shvmoz

Las Vegas Natural History Museum

"Cockroaches To Dinosaurs"

The past is alive in this museum. You'll find everything from fossils to an animated 35-foot (10.6-meter) Tyrannosaurus Rex. As for more modern monsters, there is a 3000-gallon (11,356-liter) aquarium with sharks that seem to be waiting for dinner. The learning process is enhanced with multimedia and hands-on displays, as well as live and mounted animals. One of the most popular displays contains live insects, including giant cockroaches.

+1 702 384 3466

www.lvnhm.org/

900 Las Vegas Boulevard North, Las Vegas NV

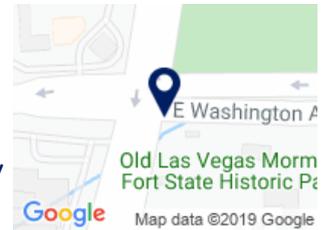

by David Stanley

Old Las Vegas Mormon Fort State Historic Park

"Mormon Settlement"

Before Bugsy Siegel made it to town, the Mormon Church created this tiny settlement in 1855. It boasts the oldest European-American building in Nevada. The site was purchased by the State of Nevada in 1990 and restored as a state park. Tours are available that outline the harsh life that the first settlers endured. The old fort was once a rest stop for those heading to California to seek their fortune during the gold rush. This section is also a part of the Cultural Corridor that lies close to the University area. No credit cards are accepted.

+1 702 486 3511

parks.nv.gov/parks/old-las-vegas-mormon-fort/

Oldfort@parks.nv.gov

500 East Washington Avenue, Las Vegas NV

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com