Alexander Inn

"Great Hotel in Quiet Neighborhood"

The Alexander Inn is in an impeccably refurbished historic structure with full modern amenities and business services. The staff is attentive, the rooms are designer-decorated and adorned with period artwork, and the breakfast buffet is lavish and free. This four star, cozy delight is situated within walking distance of all the restaurants and shopping destinations that Center City offers. Established in August 1998, impressive artwork accentuates the 1930s luxury cruise ship motif of the designer guest quarters.

La Reserve

"Center City Bed and Breakfast"

This historic 18th-century townhouse, also known as Center City Bed & Breakfast, offers visitors a cozy retreat that is only moments away from historical and cultural attractions. The rooms at La Reserve are tastefully appointed and guests are invited to use the drawing room, grand piano, library and dining room, apart from enjoying the vintage furnishings and baths of their respective rooms. The deluxe accommodations are especially well-suited for adults and families with children. A full breakfast is also served on premises.

Philadelphia Bella Vista B&B

"A Home Away From Home"

The Philadelphia Bella Vista B&B is as vibrant as its surroundings; housed within a 19th-century building that is characterized by oodles of old-time charm. Located just a short distance away from Penn's landing coastline, numerous restaurants, attractions like Antique Row and the Wilma Theater, and the central business district, this quaint B&B offers its guests a characterful and comfortable abode. Perfect for family vacations, romantic getaways and business trips, this B&B boasts a set of private rooms and self-contained suites. A satisfying continental breakfast is served every morning, while snacks are available in the common area at all times. Achieving a perfect balance between modernity and historic charm, Philadelphia Bella Vista B&B offers a tranquil reprieve from the hustle and bustle of the surrounding city.

Penn's View Inn

"Intimate, Historic Accommodations"

The Penn's View Inn is the ultimate place for those seeking a cozy and intimate form of accommodation. The guestrooms are noted for their classic wooden furnishings and impeccable décor, some with a view of the Delaware River. The Ristorante Panorama serves contemporary Italian cuisine and carries a selection of fine wines. In addition to being voted the 'Best Small Hotel of Philadelphia' in 1993, the hotel is constantly surrounded by the activity of Penn's Landing, which often hosts local food festivals and concerts.
