

"Best Steakhouses in Philadelphia"

Created by: Cityseeker

 3 Locations Bookmarked

 by PublicDomainPictures

 +1 215 732 4444

Butcher & Singer

"Old Hollywood Ambiance"

Butcher & Singer is a popular steakhouse and is known for its old Hollywood ambiance. Dishes include New York Strip Steak, Pork Chops and Pan Roasted Salmon. Don't skip dessert with temptations such as Apple Crumble, Baked Alaska and Chocolate Fudge Cake. The decor and the service ensure that you won't leave on an empty stomach.

 www.butcherandsinger.com/

 1500 Walnut Street, Philadelphia PA

 by Terje Sollie

 +1 215 772 1701

Prime Rib

"Gourmet Steakhouse"

Cuts of prime aged beef, extra-thick chops and simply prepared fresh seafood are the straightforward offerings of this Center City steakhouse. Leopard carpeting, black onyx walls trimmed in gold and tuxedoed waiters create an elegant atmosphere, featuring live piano and bass nightly. The Prime Rib is a great place to entertain clients.

 www.theprimerib.com/  info@theprimerib.com

 1701 Locust Street, The Warwick Hotel, Philadelphia PA

 by Geoff Peters 604

 +1 215 732 7560

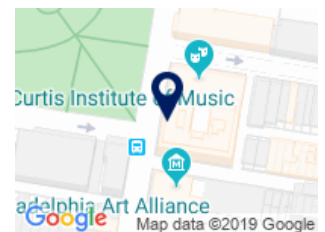

Barclay Prime

"Another Rising Star"

This is one of the finest steakhouses around Philadelphia. Barclay Prime's decor is more on the side of an uptown eatery with marble tables, comfortable plush sofas and walls lined with walnut bookcases. Order from the special menu, which consists of Kobe Sliders, Tuna and beef Tartar and the famous Philly Cheese steak. From the a la carte menu, take your pick from the Oysters Rockefeller, 12-ounce filet Porterhouses and the dangerously delicious sounding butter poached-lobster.

 www.barclayprime.com/  brittany.burkeitt@starr-restaurant.com

 237 South 18th Street, Philadelphia PA

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com