Jamonera

"A Spanish Jamboree"

It doesn't matter if you are craving a large hearty paella or just a sampling of delectable small dishes - Jamonera has an amazing selection of both. Strong rich flavors married with the freshest of produce can be enjoyed in this restaurant's classy Gothic setting. Wines and other beverages with a slight Mediterranean twist are available here, too. The restaurant celebrates boldness and vibrancy in its food as well as in its interiors.

Amada

---

"Spanish Tapas And Paella"

Chef Jose Garces had come a long way since his graduation from culinary school. The Latin cuisines he dabbles in draw inspiration from Flamenco. Amada pays respect to this iconic Spanish tradition by organizing live music and dances once every week on the premises. The name of this restaurant means 'loved one' in Spanish and a lot of regulars will willingly vouch for it. Book in advance if you are interested in hosting a party or if you want to try the suckling pig.
