Boyd's

"Legendary Local Men's Store"

American or European, Armani to Zegna, Boyd's has one of the largest selections of men's designer clothing in the country. An entire floor of extra-long and large sizes, plus formal wear and shoe departments; it's enough to satisfy the needs of any shopper. The women's boutique is well known for its collection of exquisite European tailored ensembles. A café, free custom alterations and parking make shopping a more than agreeable task.

P's & Q's

"One Stop Shop For Men"

P's & Q's is the venture of Jackson Fu and brothers, Rick and Ky Cao. This hip men's boutique has everything you need to look good and stay comfortable. Browse through their collection of labels like Norse Projects, Naked & Famous, Topo Designs, Gant Rugger, Baldwin and Tretorn. Their neatly arranged racks are full with accessories, apparels, wallets, bags, grooming items, denims, head-wear, jackets and more. The wooden accents of this store give it an inviting look while their affable staff will make your shopping experience a pleasant one.

Smak Parlour

"Smak That!"

The owners Abbie Kessler and Katie Loftus make every dress seen in the shop on their own. Smak Parlour is a hot-spot with the locals because you are guaranteed to get a well-fitting dress. Or if not the case, which is rare, they actually alter the clothes for you so that you get a custom fitting. Look out for the mannequins in the window wearing funky and bright clothes, staring out onto the street.
