Enzo Custom Clothiers

"Just for You"

Enzo Custom Clothiers offer a rare and hard to find shopping experience in today's world of mass production. Have you ever craved owning a piece of clothing that is uniquely yours? Then Enzo Custom is just the place for you. The store offers formal men's wear pieces that have been designed upon the client's personal preferences and style, created from only the best materials and in-house manufacturing to ensure the highest levels of quality. Visits are by appointment only, and start out with a chat over a glass of scotch to develop a feel for who you are and what you need from your clothes. Once a style and fit have been selected you are given an almost endless array of options to further personalize the piece. Accessories are also made available for purchase, to complete your look. Relying almost purely on word of mouth, Enzo Custom continues to provide not only affordable, quality custom clothing, but also exceptional customer service.

Sugarcube

"Vintage/Contemporary Clothing And Accessories"

Fashion and art merge at Sugarcube on 3rd Street, in Old City. The gorgeous boutique is itself a work of art, featuring exposed brick walls and glorious artworks. Sugarcube boasts of lovely clothes that reflect both contemporary and vintage designs for men and women. The itinerary includes an eclectic assortment of designers such as Steven Alan, Saja, Michelle Kim and Keepsake The Label, to name a few. Owned and operated by Elisa Buratto, the boutique features pretty tunics, cashmere scarves and sweaters, dresses and much more. If you're looking for something unique and cutting-edge yet timeless, head to Sugarcube!
