

"Best Local History & Culture in Philadelphia"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 5 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Beyond My Ken ©

African American Museum

"The African-American History"

The African American Museum is famous for carefully preserving and analyzing the pictorial and material culture and heritage of the African Americans. Over so many years of efforts, the museum has stored about 5 lac objects, images, documents, dressings, pictures and books of the natives. Major events held here are Celebrate Africa 2008!, Discover Greatness, AAMP Art and Quilters' Roundtable. Generally, on Saturdays, there are Family Days which feature face painting, story telling sessions, choreographed dances and projecting films. Local artists put on their beautiful art-work based on lives of entertainers, politicians and freedom fighters.

📞 +1 215 574 0380

🌐 www.aampmuseum.org/

✉ info@aampmuseum.org

📍 701 Arch Street, Philadelphia PA

📷 by hazel.estrada ©

National Constitution Center

"The Great American Dream"

The National Constitution Center is dedicated to the research and education of the United States Constitution among the masses. This museum curates an unrivaled collection of exhibits, relics and multimedia displays that offer an avid glimpse into the country's rich heritage. Explore their interactive exhibitions, view the replica of the Emancipation Proclamation and acquaint yourself with the American War of Independence. Play make-believe by recording your voice while reading the Presidential Oath of Office and rub shoulders with 42 bronze statues of the pioneers of the constitution. Visitors can also admire model government buildings and photographs of Pulitzer award recipients, print their own news and play a game of trivia. This complex is also home to the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach.

📞 +1 215 409 6600

🌐 www.constitutioncenter.org/

✉ visitorcomments@constitutioncenter.org

📍 525 Arch Street, Independence Mall, Philadelphia PA

📷 by Beyond My Ken ©

National Museum of American Jewish History

"Judaism in America"

The National Museum of Jewish American History chronicles the existence of Judaism in the country and its cultural impact on society. Established in 1976, this 100,000 square-foot (9290 square-meter) space is replete with over 20,000 displays that testify the Jewish-American tie dating back to the Colonial period. Learn Hebrew traditions, explore their interactive exhibits, watch engaging films at the theater, browse through artifacts and read through literary work by Jewish writers. Visit the museum store to take home postcards, curios and unique souvenirs.

📞 +1 215 923 3811

🌐 www.nmajh.org/

✉ nmajh@nmajh.org

📍 101 South Independence Mall East, Philadelphia PA

Independence Seaport Museum

"Waterfront History and Art"

Philadelphia has been an important seaport town since the 1600s. The Seaport Museum traces this history through exhibits, demonstrations, and several ships on display, including a World War II submarine and the USS Olympia, Admiral Dewey's flagship in the Spanish-American War. The auditorium at the museum is also used for chamber music concerts.

by The original uploader was George100 at English Wikipedia.(Original text:User:George100)
 +1 215 413 8655

 www.phillyseaport.org/

 dcorti@phillyseaport.org

 211 South Columbus Boulevard and Walnut Street, Penn's Landing, Philadelphia PA

Pennsylvania Veterans Museum

"History Museum"

The esteemed Pennsylvania Veterans Museum is also referred to as the Media Armory. Constructed in 1908, this armory has been now transformed into a museum that opened in 2005. It chronicles and provides insight into the important battles in the history of United States. Check website for more details.

 by Smallbones
 +1 610 566 0788

 www.paveteransmuseum.org/home/index.php

 info@paveteransmuseum.org

 12 East State Street, Media PA

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com