Estoril Beach Club

"Estoril-Moonlight"

By day this place dominates the beach with its umbrellas and sun beds. By night it is transformed into a vivacious club. Estoril Beach Club offers two dance floors and the music keeps playing till wee hours of the night here. One dance floor is under the stars, great for those warm summer nights, the other is inside. You can also go shopping by night in the well organized shopping area or have an aperitif on the terrace and eat a pizza or dine at the private restaurant, which is open till midnight.

Makò

"Classic Disco with Live Music"

A former classy night club, this is now a disco in a round building, looking over the sea. The large windows would make this a great place during the day, but it only opens at night when it offers restaurant service and a disco later on. The music is mainly commercial, with 70s revival evenings, and it attracts a diverse crowd looking for a fun time.
