Urban Oasis

"Hippest Crash Pad in Town"

The Urban Oasis stands alone among other bed & breakfast spots in Atlanta for a variety of reasons. Originally a cotton factory in the '50s, it is now an open, modernized loft space that houses three unique bedrooms and bathrooms that are decorated with an incredibly eclectic style and sense of humor. Krog Street is already known for its bohemian vibe and the Urban Oasis just adds to the character and coolness of this neighborhood. Thanks to all the vibrant colors on the walls there is always room for inspiration here.
