Anis Cafe & Bistro

"France's Provence Comes to Buckhead"

If you have fond memories of a small French village, or even if you just like Gerard Depardieu movies, don't miss this out-of-the-way bistro. Anis serves Provençal fare in a converted house that offers a pleasant outside dining area as well. The wait staff is young, French-speaking, and well-educated on the variety of French wines proffered. The atmosphere remains quiet and elegant in its simplicity even on the busiest nights. See website for menu, wine list, and online reservations.

La Petite Maison

"Fabulous French Fare!"

It is quite simple to see why La Petite Maison is regarded as one of the best French restaurants in Sandy Springs. The flavors of the food immediately conjure up images of sunny, beautiful Provence, and the softly playing French music and dim lighting create a romantic mood. On the menu you will find authentic French dishes, every last one of which is delicious, but the house specialties have a special touch to them. Among these specials is the the Poellée de Scampis à la Provençale, a dish made of sautéed scampi, basil, olive oil and tomato sauce, served with white rice. The extensive wine list perfectly complements all the delicacies on the menu.
