Bobby Dodd Stadium at Historic Grant Field

"High Kicks and Tackles"

Located near the Georgia Tech campus, this stadium is a popular college football venue. It can seat up to 55,000 passionate fans, and is a short distance from the Hank McCamish Pavilion. Even though horns, drums and music instruments are not allowed inside the stadium, the noise decibels reach alarming heights with the high energy on match nights.

Center Parc Stadium

"Home of the Braves"

Home of the Atlanta Braves, Center Parc Stadium is a must-visit even if you're not into baseball. Built as a multi-purpose facility for the 1996 Olympics, the stadium houses The Braves Museum as well as several restaurants and concession stands. Stop by at Scouts Alley, which has an array of interactive games. Step out and be surrounded by the smell of hot boiled peanuts and their signature battle cry of the tomahawk chop. Tours of the stadium complex are available both during the season and off it.
