

"Best Fast Food Restaurants in Seattle"

Created by: Cityseeker

 8 Locations Bookmarked

 by Mike Saechang

Taco Del Mar

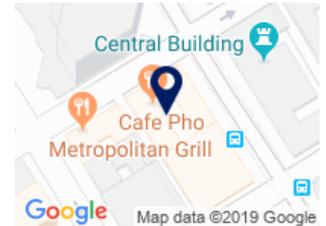

"Burrito Fantasy!"

Taco Del Mar presents a great range of Mexican eats for the discerning foodie. With a number of locations throughout the region, one of the highlights of the place is the "Mission Style" Burritos. Keeping the natural flavors intact, Taco Del Mar has found an exceptional rapport with Mexican-food lovers in downtown Seattle. The menu that can be customized has options for tacos, nachos, quesadillas and enchiladas as well. Choose your main filling, salsa and side, and you're in for a juicy treat. Check website for catering options and more information.

 +1 206 467 4878

 www.tacodelmar.com/storelocator/locate.php

 823 Third Avenue, Suite 100, Seattle WA

Potbelly Sandwich Shop

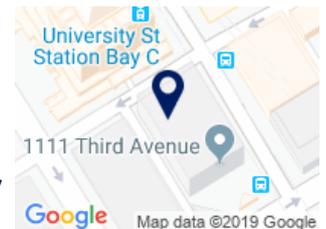

"Delicious Sandwiches"

If you want to grab a quick bite while sightseeing in downtown Seattle or just happen to be a fan of hearty sandwiches, step into the Potbelly Sandwich Shop where you will be spoiled for choice. Along with their meaty options, the restaurant offers a variety of vegan options as well. The restaurant is also host to live music gigs which draw in quite the crowd. The overall cozy ambiance makes this a great place to hang out with friends or come in for a family meal.

 +1 206 204 0079

 www.potbelly.com/Shops/ShopLocator.aspx?PotbellyShopId=258

 1111 3rd Avenue, Seattle WA

 by jules:stonesoup

La Vaca Burrito Express

"Burritos Served Fresh!"

La Vaca Burrito Express, as the name says, is a great option for burrito-lovers. The inexpensive options maintain great quality standards and an unmatched taste. The simple joint is great for take-away, and their service is prompt and fast. Along with chicken and beef, La Vaca also serves vegetarian options. This is definitely a must-visit place for those who like Mexican food.

 +1 206 467 9262

 1429 1st Avenue, Outside Pike Place Market, Seattle WA

 by James Willamor

Rancho Bravo Tacos

"Inexpensive Mexican Fare"

Rancho Bravo Tacos serves some of the best burritos in Capitol Hill. Their chicken tacos and burritos have created a steady fan base in the neighborhood. Some of the dishes of Rancho Bravo Tacos that the locals would vouch for include Steak Taco, Bravo Burrito and Pork Tamale. With down-to-earth prices and a friendly atmosphere, this is definitely a must-visit in Seattle.

 +1 206 322 9399

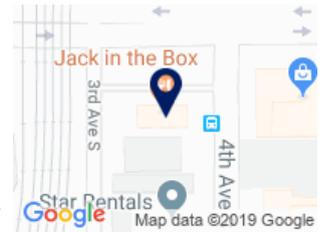

by [puamelia] ©

Jack In the Box

"Scrumptious Burger Spot"

Jack In the Box as the name suggests is a great place to enjoy some regular burgers, both vegetarian and non vegetarian. Plus you can try other local favorites like pizzas, pastas, steaks and sandwiches which are a local favorite. Try their juices, or enjoy all this with a nice beer to go. The efficient service, casual ambiance and pocket-friendly menu, make Jack In the Box one of the favorite eating spots for locals as well as tourists.

+1 206 628 9028

www.jackinthebox.com/

1907 4th Avenue South, Seattle WA

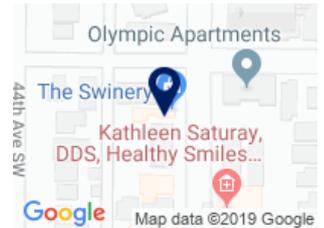

by DaveCrosby ©

The Swinery

"Traditional Meat Products"

The Swinery, a sustainable eatery and food shop, is extremely popular among meat-lovers in West Seattle. Focusing on sustainability, the shop sources its product from less than 300 miles (482 kilometers) away, buying from small local organic farmers. Using traditional techniques, this shop prides itself on using the whole animal and providing customers with hard to find cuts of meat. Find delicious steaks, sausages, pork chops and more to bring home for dinner or if you're not in the mood to cook, order one of their mouth-watering burgers or sandwiches.

+1 206 932 4211

swinerymeats.com/

info@swinerymeats.com

3207 California Avenue Southwest, Seattle WA

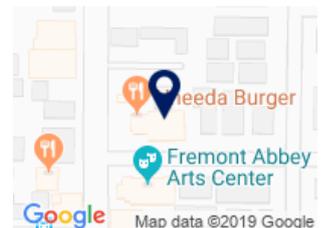

by RitaE ©

Uneeda Burger

"Local Burger Joint"

Uneeda Burger is a distinctive burger shack with a laid-back vibe. The cuisine includes burgers, sandwiches and shakes. The signature options from the menu featuring over a third of a pound of meat with generous toppings such as shallots, gruyere cheese, tempura lemons, charred peppers and onions. The ice-cream shakes and floats are preferred by many, though there is a decent wine list and few craft beers to complement your meal. Check website for details.

+1 206 547 2600

www.uneedaburger.com/index.html

4302 Fremont Avenue North, Seattle WA

by jeffreyw ©

El Chupacabra

"Mexican Charmer!"

With an elegant decor and amazing service, El Chupacabra is a great option for Mexican fast food. The decor, complete with a refreshing outdoor patio, is inviting, to say the least. Food wise, expect to be treated to the usual Mexican fare along with margaritas. The spicy burritos are exceptional with spicy fillings and with some vegan options as well. Note that the place tends to be a bit crowded during dinner hours. Call ahead for details.

+1 206 706 4889

6711 Greenwood Avenue North, Between Phinney Avenue North & 68th Street, Seattle WA

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com