

"Best Dive/Biker Bars in Seattle"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 13 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by StuartWebster ©

Linda's Tavern

"Texas Trendy"

Do not let the stuffed buffalo head or the other Wild West paraphernalia fool you. This ain't Texas. The atmosphere in this Capitol Hill neighborhood tavern is warm, casual, even trendy. DJs spin alternative records. Pitchers of microbrew flow freely, and the menu consists of Southern fare including Chicken Potpie, meatloaf and the beloved Chicken-Fried Steak. Despite the in-crowd feel, the people are inviting and friendly. You may have to wait in line to play pool on the one table. Also come for weekend brunch.

📞 +1 206 325 1220

🌐 www.lindastavern.com/

✉ info@lindastavern.com

📍 707 East Pine Street, Seattle WA

📷 by divya_ ©

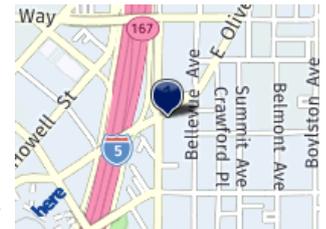

Speckled & Drake

"Calling Seattle's Beer Lovers"

The beer bar in Seattle, by the name of Speckled & Drake is a great place to just enjoy some after hours beer and fries. Having been around for a while now, their Karaoke night events are a great hit among youngsters and working professional alike and you will see that during weekdays, the place is flocked with sharp dressed men and women who after a tiring day at work, unwind here.

📞 +1 917 476 9328

📍 1355 East Olive Way, Seattle WA

📷 by DanB Seattle 2012 ©

Comet Tavern

"Retro Nightlife"

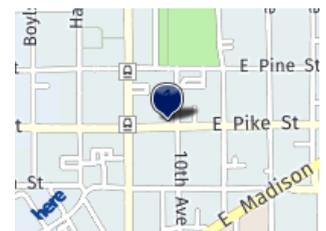

Comet Tavern has been around in the Pike/Pine area of Seattle as long as anyone can remember. It's known as a place for local bands to play, and it has always been an epicenter of Seattle's eclectic music activity. Add some pinball machines, a pool table and cheap beers, and you have the perfect dive bar. The creaky floorboards protesting at every step and very smoky interiors seems to be appropriate for those who take their nightlife seriously.

📞 +1 206 322 9272

🌐 www.comettavern.com/

✉ cometbooking@gmail.com

📍 922 East Pike Street, Seattle WA

📷 by Marler ©

Pony

"Loud and Proud"

Located in Central District, Pony is a LGBT dive bar which serves pints, and pitchers of strong pours and features a great year-round outdoor patio with a fire pit and retractable roof. This bar is certainly not for the meek or the under-aged, as the walls are splattered with explicit content. This divey-piece-of-goodness is equipped with a dance floor and the DJ plays great tunes while also letting you gulp down decently priced drinks.

📞 +1 206 324 2854

🌐 www.ponyseattle.com/

✉ mark@ponyseattle.com

📍 1221 East Madison Street,

by Jon Mountjoy

The 5 Point Cafe

"Dive-Style Diner"

The 5 Point Cafe is a neighborhood dive bar and restaurant that offers sumptuous American comfort food, including roast beef sandwich, Cuban marinated pulled pork sandwich, burgers and homemade chili soup. This popular cafe is open day and night and is acclaimed as one of the best dive bars in the city due to its inexpensive prices and down-to-Earth atmosphere. The unpretentious decor has a few unusual twists, such as a moose head that's covered in bras or some risqué Polaroids behind the bar. Make sure you check out the great deals during their Happy Hour.

+1 206 448 9991

the5pointcafe.com/

415 Cedar Street, Seattle WA

by Marler

Twilight Exit

"Pocket-Friendly Eats and Drinks"

Twilight Exit is a dive bar on East Cherry Street which offers a range of zippy drinks and pub grub at extremely pocket-friendly prices. If you are hungry you can try out their hearty American pub classics which are known for their massive proportions. Their Caesar salad, sandwiches and burgers are especially popular among diners. With a jukebox playing all your favorite tunes and a pinball machine to entertain yourself with, this bar is a great hangout for friends.

+1 206 324 7462

2514 East Cherry Street, Seattle WA

by Public Domain

Mecca Cafe

"Landmark Cafe"

The menu offers breakfast and lunch, but make no mistake about it, as the main attraction is the diner itself, a greasy place that serves as a Mecca for a group of regulars enjoying a night on the town. This cafe dates back to World War II, so it is no surprise that it has acquired a musty character over the years. You may not be able to make out your friends through the smoky air, but half the fun of coming is to try. Typical American pub grub is offered, heavier than usual with grease—burgers, fries, sandwiches and the like. Breakfast is available all day. There is a full bar and the beer selection is broad.

+1 206 285 9728

526 Queen Anne Avenue North, Seattle WA

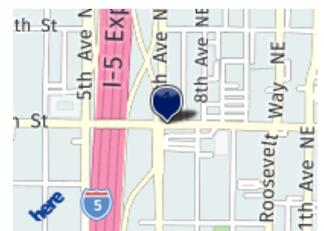

by brewbooks

Blue Moon

"One of the Oldest"

Founded in 1934, Blue Moon was once the den of popular media figures. Housed in the University district, the club is frequented by students who love to spend their evenings with some good music and fabulous drinks. The beer at the bar is particularly famous and the food is the usual pub grub. Every day the venue presents a line of local artists who entertain the crowd and lighten up the mood.

+1 206 675 9116

bluemoonseattle.wordpress.com/

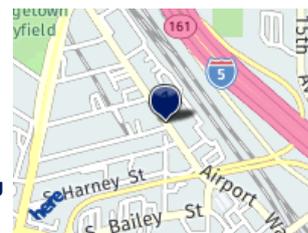

712 North East 45th Street, Seattle WA

Nine Pound Hammer

"Old School Bar"

Nine Pound Hammer is a no-frills bar. What you get here are mean drinks and free peanuts. Hang out with your friends, unwind and play some pool or pinball. Nine Pound Hammer is the best place to go to after the working day is done. Dress as you please because the crowd here is always set to have a blast. There is outdoor seating if you prefer, but you can hear locals having a good time inside as well.

by Lindsey Gira

+1 206 762 3373

www.ninepoundhammer.com/

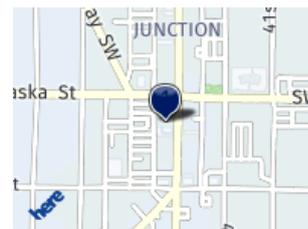

6009 Airport Way South, Seattle WA

Poggie Tavern

"Casual Night Out"

A absolutely no frills place, Poggie Tavern is a small pub and bar that lets you party without the irritating worry of dressing up. Inside, you will find some of the best live bands rocking the place with their music. Poggie Tavern only serves beer and wines, but they are plentiful and come in many varieties. For food their pizzas are scrumptious. There is also the lure of a very retro ambiance with florescent bulbs lighting the otherwise cozy place.

by bitslammer

+1 206 937 2165

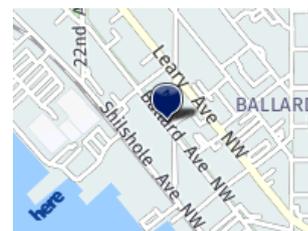

4717 California Avenue Southwest, Seattle WA

King's Hardware

"Western Hangout"

This western themed bar is owned by Linda Derschang, the lady who owns Linda's and Chop Suey. It is named after a hardware store that was earlier in its place. The decor includes wagon wheel lamps, a saloon style bar and a black and white photo display. The customers can avail of a haircut along with their beer as the bar is connected to Rudy's barbershop. The pub has a lengthy cocktail list and assorted pub grub.

by Public Domain

+1 206 782 0027

www.kingsballard.com/

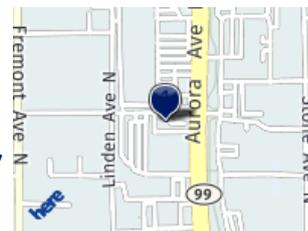

5225 Ballard Avenue Northwest, Seattle WA

Darrell's Tavern

"Dive in for Drinks and more"

At Darrell's Tavern on Aurora Avenue North, there is always something that will make you want to come back for more. Happy hour happens daily from 4p to 7p, while live entertainment can be found on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. The bar also features pool tables, a horseshoe shaped bar, lounge chairs and is a great spot for locals as well as tourists. Dating back to the 1960s, Darrell's Tavern has a huge following, so gear up for the eclectic mix of crowd you're bound to encounter any time of the day. Call or visit their website to know more.

by moronistaffmarie

+1 206 542 6688

www.darrellstavern.com/ darrellstavern@live.com

18041 Aurora Avenue North, Shoreline WA

JOIN US AT:
cityseeker.com