Club Sirius

"Bar Near the River Walk"

Club Sirius is located right of the River Walk in San Antonio, making it a convenient destination for fun, drinks, and dancing. During the day, stop by and lounge with friends, enjoying a Lone Star or a michelada. A DJ takes over for the jukebox at night, so you can hit the dance floor after a couple of shots from their menu of over 100. The atmosphere is lively, with people gathering to dance and enjoy flavorful cocktails and Texas beer.

Brass Monkey

"Fewer Dollars for Fun"

If you're looking for a fun night on the town without breaking the bank, head to Brass Monkey. This popular nightclub never has a cover. Groove to some cool beats and sip on a reasonably priced beer. The dance floor is spacious and features plenty of lasers. The music played is mostly hits from the 80s and 90s, so be forewarned that you might find yourself getting nostalgic.

The Industry

"Throwback Tunes"

If you're looking for a weekend dance party, head to The Industry. This club keeps the night lively by playing your favorite dance tunes from the 80s and 90s. The dance floor isn't huge, but it manages to get packed. Pair the cool tunes with reasonably priced cover charges and drinks, and it's easy to see why this place is one of San Antonio's favorite dance spots.

Cowboy's Dance Hall

"Multipurpose Venue"

Wear your cowboy boots and your Wranglers because it's time to go two-steppin' at this Western-themed nightclub. Here you'll find a relaxed, small-town atmosphere where people of all ages can talk, listen to local country music bands, dance, and sip on a beer or two. Special dance lessons are held here from time to time so you can brush up on your moves.
