Dixie Flag Manufacturing Company

"Magnificent New and Historical Flags"

It's hard to miss this San Antonio landmark, as the 30-by-60-foot American flag that gracing the front of the building is an eye-catching sight. This family-owned shop has been making flags for businesses and individuals since 1958, offering everything from banners for theme parks to the flag that flies in front of the Alamo. The store has a huge selection of flags in stock, and custom orders are available in any size and in several fabric styles. Don't miss the historical flag collection. Flags from throughout Texas' and America's history are available at reasonable prices, and you will also find replica flags for sale should you be on a tighter budget. The store carries world flags and banners for schools and religious use as well.

Sloan-Hall

"Eclectic Gifts and Cards"

One of the best stores around for women's apparel and accessories, Sloan-Hall is a must-visit for anyone who is in the mood to indulge in some retail therapy. Not only are the clothes sourced from manufacturers but the store also stocks up on high-end designer wear. Besides the array of clothes, one can also shop for gift items, souvenirs, cards, apothecary items like soaps, fragrances and other grooming goods. A limited selection of gadgets and electronic items can also be bought at the shop. The owner's eye for contemporary design and taste for the unique and unusual makes clearly set the outlet apart from other retail stores.
