Mike's Ice Cream and Coffee Bar

"Fabulous 1950s Ice Cream Parlor"

Mike's Ice Cream Fountain offers delicious homemade ice cream in the heart of downtown Nashville. It is the perfect stop for Nashville tourists and regulars who need a place to cool off or are looking for a memorable dessert after an evening on the town. The décor at Mike's takes guests back in time to a 1950s ice cream parlor and soda fountain shop. Their most popular homemade flavors include a very yummy butter pecan and a very peanuty nutter butter. Prices are very reasonable, and the service is hometown friendly.

Pied Piper Creamery

"Nashville's Finest Creamery"

Pied Piper Creamery serves up some of the most delicious ice cream in Nashville. Rich and creamy, their home-made soft style ice cream leaves customers coming back again and again. With amusing and creative flavors like Baklava, Key Lime Cheesecake, Oatmeal Raisin in the Sun, C is for Cookie, and Na Na Nu Nu, you never know what amazing and tasty concoctions await you. Located in a converted Victorian home in the popular Five Corners region of Nashville's East End, the atmosphere at Pied Piper is as charming as the ice cream is delicious. - Lynn-nore Chittom
