Parlour & Juke

"Raw & Rustic Southern Salon"

From Loretta Lynn bouffants in her small hometown in Alabama to rock star's album covers, Cali DeVaney's 14 years in the hair industry has taken her to some pretty wild places. Planting roots in Nashville, DeVaney now owns and operates a downtown hair salon as unique as the hair she cuts and styles. Edging, with unpretentious Southern charm, Parlour & Juke is the place to visit for a new 'do. With such accomplished stylists and barbers, you know you'll be in good hands.

Style Kitchen

"Retro Salon"

This boutique salon is retro to say the least. Orange accent walls, 70's velvet couches and chairs, and even an old school stove turned hair product display case, make this modern salon feel like a blast from the past. Serving up flattering cuts, customizing color, Brazilian blowouts and even brow shaping and nail care, the Style Kitchen will fulfill your beauty needs.

The Moose Men's Grooming Lounge

"Gentlemen's Gathering Spot"

Smelling of rich mahogany and cigars, The Moose Men's Grooming Lounge is not your typical barber shop. An iconic American institution, barber shops were once a place where men could commune, discuss current events and have a place of their own. Drawing from this legacy, The Moose Men's Grooming Lounge features modern amenities and services with that old school flair. Everything from the beverage bar to the personal HDTV's at each station ensure your experience is personable and pleasant.
