

"Best Burgers in San Diego"

Created by: Cityseeker

 3 Locations Bookmarked

 by divya_

Slater's 50/50 - San Diego

"The Ultimate Sports Haven"

A chain of sports bars spread across California, Slater's 50/50 is famous for its craft beers and delectable burgers. This particular branch is located at Liberty Station, and is popular among locals and visitors alike. With over 100 craft beers that are locally brewed, this location is perfect for those after-work drinks or weekend with friends. Boneless buffalo chicken strips, Beer cheese fries and Slater's Vampire Dip are some great dishes on their menu. The bar is kid-friendly and hosts regular events to keep its patrons happy and active.

 +1 619 398 2600

 slaters5050.com/locations/san-diego/

 2750 Dewey Road, San Diego CA

 by Sandie Clarke on Unsplash

Dave & Buster's Restaurant

"Gaming Centre"

If gaming is your passion then head to Dave & Buster's. With outlets all over the country, the place is known to have spent 50 million dollars on their equipment. And it shows. You'll find the latest electronic and interactive games, and there are over 200 games to choose from. On a lucky night, you just might cash in your winnings or get your hands on one of the prizes. If all this fun activity gets tedious, move over to the handcrafted, tournament-sized billiards and shuffleboard tables, or head to the Midway or Viewpoint Bar. The restaurant is a good place to go too. It has introduced a brand new low-carb menu for all those watching their waists.

 +1 619 280 7115

 www.daveandbusters.com/Location/s/default.aspx

 2931 Camino Del Rio North, San Diego CA

 by stu_spivack

Burger Lounge

"Lounge Around a Plate"

Burger Lounge is the place for an upscale take on the old-fashioned "burger joint" meal using organically-raised Angus beef. The juicy hamburgers are tasty, the turkey burger is splendid and the fries are crisp, hot and sprinkled with herbs. The onion rings are made with a light coating over a slightly undercooked onion slice—it's an acquired taste for some. The service is vibrant. The menu is limited to burgers, salads and chicken skewers. Everything about Burger Lounge is bright, fresh, tasty and quickly served with a smile! Beer, wine and scrumptious milkshakes are also available here.

 +1 619 584 2929

 burgerlounge.com/

 info@burgerlounge.com

 4116 Adams Avenue, San Diego CA

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com