Osetra the Fish House

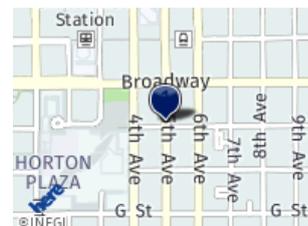

"Fish and More"

Osetra features haute cuisine with a focus on seafood. The restaurant has gained popularity in a relatively short span of time. When you have your wine picked out for the evening, a Wine Angel will fly up the three-story tower that contains their extensive selection to retrieve it for you. This restaurant also has an oyster bar, caviar bar and an ice bar. The lounge and the tastefully designed dining area have a seating capacity of 250 and can be an ideal venue for special events. Stop by for a dining experience you won't forget.

Blue Point Coastal Cuisine

"Downtown Dining"

This sophisticated restaurant in the Gaslamp Quarter enjoys a busy corner location ideal for people watching. Most of the clientele have eyes only for each other, as this dimly-lit restaurant is a popular romantic date spot. Blue Point Coastal Cuisine is as well known for its finely mixed martinis as it is for its Nouveau California cuisine. Choose from seafood offerings like grilled mahi mahi and caramelized salmon, or opt for an aged steak, rack of lamb or duck breast.

Oceanaire Seafood Room

"A Visit to the Sea"

Serving up the freshest seafood the ocean has to offer, the Oceanaire has been voted as San Diego's best seafood restaurant. With an interior reminiscent of a 1930s ocean liner, guests can comfortably savor more than 25 varieties of fresh fish from around the world. Featuring a fresh oyster bar and private dining room in addition to the comfortable, yet intimate main dining room, this is a great place to go with friends, on a date or for special occasions. The sashimi is excellent as well as the signature cocktails such as the trixi tini.

The Fish Market Restaurant

"Seafood with a View"

Diners are drawn to the Fish Market for the fresh seafood and the tremendous view of the San Diego Bay. This casual downstairs restaurant has a snug oyster and cocktail bar, as well as an outstanding sushi bar. The atmosphere is warm and inviting, perfect for group outings. The restaurant has a separate private dining room, an elevated main dining area and a waterside deck – a beautiful outdoor dining experience with the fresh bay air and sunshine beaming on you. The food is arguably some of the best seafood in San Diego, with highlights including clam chowder, king crab legs, ginger lime prawns, oyster Rockefeller, salt and pepper calamari and oh so much more.
