

"Best Specialty in San Diego"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 6 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by flavouz ©

Filippi's Pizza Grotto

"Pizza and Italian Grocery Items"

Filippi's Pizza Grotto is one of the most beloved Italian restaurants in San Diego. Its pizza has been highly acclaimed since first being served more than 50 years ago. The front of the restaurant is an Italian shop selling dried pasta, wines, candy, canned goods and olives, and a deli selling Italian sausages and cheese. After passing through this aromatic area, one is led to the restaurant itself. The chefs here dish up all the classics including lasagne, spaghetti and meatballs, ravioli and more. Imported and domestic wine and beer is available.

📞 +1 619 232 5094

🌐 realcheesepizza.com/little-italy

📍 1747 India Street, San Diego CA

📷 by Public Domain ©

The Wine Bank

"Immerse in Wine"

If you know and love wine, this is the shop for you. A brilliant collection of worldwide wines packs two floors, where a bottle of Chaucer's Mead is found in a corner of a room holding a 1982 Chateau Lynch Bages imperial (5-liter bottle) of Bordeaux. At the Wine Bank, separate rooms are devoted to the output of specific nations or, in some cases, to a particular type of wine, allowing easy comparisons. Regular wine tastings are scheduled. So swirl your glass and sip on to the finest of varieties!

📞 +1 619 234 7487

🌐 www.sdwinebank.com/

✉ info@sdwinebank.com

📍 363 Fifth Avenue, Between 5th and J Streets, San Diego CA

📷 by Katrin Gilger ©

Kous Kous

"Choose Choose the Kous Kous"

Run by a Moroccan family, this newer addition to the San Diego dining scene has achieved a legendary status. If you're persistent enough to find it in its basement location below street level, you are rewarded by a welcoming and comfortable atmosphere that conjures up images of a Bedouin tent in the desert. The Lamb Tangine comes melting off the shank after baking in a traditional ceramic vessel for hours. Inclusive menus start at a fixed price, but a wise diner could do a little better by ordering à la carte.

📞 +1 619 295 5560

🌐 www.kouskousrestaurant.com/

✉ kouskous@sbcglobal.net

📍 3940 4th Avenue, San Diego CA

Clairemont Surf Shop

"Making Waves"

If sun, sand, and surf are your thing, then head to Clairemont Surf Shop for some quality merchandise. This surf shop has been a San Diego fixture since 1976, making it quite the expert for people's surfing needs and wants. They offer surfboards, apparel, wetsuits, and even some snowboarding equipment. If you really love the store, you can become a member for a reasonable fee and receive discounts on store merchandise for a year.

 +1 858 292 1153

 www.clairemontsurf.com/

 clairemontsurf@sbcglobal.net

 6393 Balboa Avenue, San Diego CA

Solo

"Bring Some Style to Your Home"

Solo's 4,000 square foot space is located in Solana Beach, California. They offer beautiful vintage furniture and home decor items, as well as coffee table books, stationery, and enchanting toys for kids. Whether you're looking to decorate your home or find a great gift for someone, you'll love what Solo has to offer!

 +1 858 794 9016

 www.solocedros.com/

 home@solocedros.com

 309 South Cedros Avenue, Solana Beach CA

JOIN US AT:
cityseeker.com