More Than You Can Imagine

"Find the Best Deals on Consignment"

Cosabella lingerie, D&G eyewear, Cartier watches - these are a few of every girl's favorite things. Find them at More Than You Can Imagine. Second-hand clothing has a new caché, one that says that being thrifty and environmentally conscious is good for the soul and for the closet. Consignment shops, once the domain of Salvation Army and Goodwill, are now of boutique quality carrying top-of-the-line designer labels.

Abejas Boutique

"The Buzz About This Boutique"

Word on the street is that Abejas ("bee" in Spanish) is the best place in town to pick up that stunning 22-carat rose-cut diamond bangle Halle Berry was wearing, your favorite Chrome Hearts sunglasses or an insanely gorgeous Gary Graham dress. Too steep for your budget? Not to worry. You can also pick up Christina Nicodemus' signature bee t-shirts for under $40. Pair one perfectly with Hudson jeans, and round it out with flip-flops handmade by a one-armed surfer out of L.A.

Dimensions

"Sophisticated Styles for Today's Woman"

Well-dressed women of the new millennium will undoubtedly continue to spend some of their hard-earned money in this store. The low prices and elegant styles are simply too good to resist. Casual styles are also available, but the store really excels at providing chic business attire. The line of accessories should not be ignored, either. You can typically pick up matching shoes, scarves, purses and more at prices that will be equally amazing.
